What do you guys think? May buy today.. the conference is tommorow, it will either skyrocket or dip... Will invest $200 if the votes are higher for rise within 2 hours.

Three about different things.

Should I Invest at current price

A investments thread

(This one) Do you think it will dip or rise.

The raise it's having seems almost unhealthy, I have no NEO and have no interest in NEO but I mean just off the bat heres my speculation:

1. I believe the coin is being pumped, I don't think the price rise is real, I think a group of whales is manipulating it. Why you ask?

If you look at the graph, you couldn't almost get a more perfect vertical line of a pump and dump, its not even a slanted raise, its literally almost going up to down(vertically), This is extremely unhealthy(and frankly as a investor I'd never touch something like this), which leads me to believe its being pumped and will drop severely after whatever news it has is released or over.

2. I don't understand what besides the whales and sheep's hyping the coin that NEO even does, every time I've attempted to ask "well what does it do" nobody answers or they tell me "its a china coin" which doesn't even make sense, I cant seem to find one source of information or 1 person that actually says what this coin does?

3. They have no marketing? There's no website? No Whitepaper or anything else? If this coin didn't have so much in it I'd almost be calling it a scam coin, when u search neo cryptocurrency or neo website or neo crypto website or anything that should pull up their site that has information and stuff on it, there's nothing to be found?

I'm not hating on this coin, but as a crypto investor this coin looks to be not only pumped but also has nearly no information or official "backing"(Not even a simple wordpress site for their coin!), I personally will never touch this coin but this is all just my speculation.

I think it will dip the growth is insane and if it wants to keep up at this price then the volume has to stay close to the same, after the hype of the conference big dump

Vape. - August 7, 2017, 9:13 am

Should I sell? I went from $250 to $340, pull out and go in another coin?

Be smart and take the profit, the risk that its gonna be dumped after that unhealthy rise is too big.

Aristan - August 7, 2017, 9:29 am

Seems you did a bad research... ?

For example whitepaper in english:

Pretty sure it will see a small dip really soon to 15$ before rising in value again.

I invest 1k at 10$ but it will still rising

DontQQSoMuch - August 7, 2017, 9:59 am

Same situation with Stratis 1 (?) month ago, where it skyrocketed to $12 (?) and then fell back down. I learned from that and sold my NEO tinyb2 - August 7, 2017, 10:57 am

I feel the current price is pumped and that it will probably rise a bit more before dipping hard.

I did the same. Similar to the STRAT situation you are talking about, I think the price now already accounts for NEO having a great conference.
