Just here to expose another one.

This ones editing about 1-3posts per page on average. I stopped after a while because there is so many. Can't count the ones he is deleting.

Example of the same post being deleted:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4918493&pid=54906766#pid54906766>

That promo post then deleted:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?pid=54906522#pid54906522>

Another customer quoting him:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4918493&pid=55289679#pid55289679>

and the post he had quoted now:

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=4918493&pid=55289491#pid55289491>

All posts edited a few days later, some are obvious by the quotes of them. I can't go through 200+ pages but here is about the last 20-30.

Don't deal with the products just pointing out obvious post/edit/delete abuse

Infinitum - August 8, 2017, 5:13 pm

Great find indeed, but instead of "spamming" (not literally, but still) the section, you could've just done one thread including every person?

Except if it's meant simply and purely to get rid of competitors, one by one, to put their names out on the title, making people less eager to buy their products.

Nearly every post I've made is at char or img limit (don't know why for quotes?) and it wouldn't be very feasible.

That's 3 sellers from the same section your buddy Chief proxy sells for you? Nice way to slander competition, you cant compete with your shit products so you have to resort on this? Fucking sad.

Yes it's slander because everyone else plays by the rules...

Don't see one up for anyone who didn't deserve it do you? Nope.

Whats sad is how you have been abusing normal members that dont know any better and selling outdated methods for years now.

I dont, I believe they are all here randomly? Why would you stick to just one sub-forum when you have whole Marketplace?

Or is it because your buddy Chiefs proxy-sales arent going as planned?

Chief is selling in ebook bazaar? You're in monetizing techniques, what the hell are you talking about?

Stop making excuses for your low quality.

Mr. Robot - August 8, 2017, 5:26 pm

Formula1 going ham on the marketplace now.

His Sticky expired pretty much the same time Formula started doing this. Stop making yourself look like a fool, takes 2 seconds to see Omnis sticky post.

Okay pal.

I see 2 names in that section on this list because only 2 of you are abusing the system. Yes I looked in markets I'm familiar with, why would I randomly start browsing the VPN section? Use your head.

I'd be happy to keep creating these on the rest of the marketplace abuse I've seen.

Trying to throw your "hurtful?" comments at me is like trying to throw a stone through bulletproof glass lmao.

Excalibur - August 8, 2017, 5:28 pm

When I joined HF, I was so convinced on buying this e-Book but a good friend suggested all eBooks are fucked up! And I didn't! I'm glad I didn't! But you actually learn something from each different e-Books tho! :)

In this case, I'm sorry. I was just curious, since making different threads about each individual permitted with ease to "remove", or at least reduce the chances of selling some products for the users.

Which, when I see now, would not be a bad idea, still.

You're so fucking obvious that you just gave me a picture proving your buddy doesn't proxy sell there anymore, as if you didn't know his sticky expired 3h ago. Be more obvious please, I genuinely doubt I won't see his Sticky there by the time sun goes up.

If you're not familiar with the market you probably don't understand but the combined marketshare of the users these reports are on is about 4%. It's really just about them abusing the post/edit/delete You're acting like you're exposing me for helping Chief out lol...

I work along side many users and I've played a hand in content writing the products or threads on oh so many more.

This is public knowledge.

You're trying to defend yourself of breaking the rules by saying it's not fair I exposed you for it because you were/are a competitor of mine? Do you understand how stupid that sounds?
