What do you want to do before you die? Personally I want to own a supercar ?

Siciliano - August 10, 2017, 11:41 am

To live the life I want to live.

10x - August 10, 2017, 11:41 am wanna visit a shit-ton of countries around the world, some on my list are:

Switzerland

Japan

Thailand

China

USA

France

Britain

Norway

Sweden

and Finland

I am from Canada :)

I want to go skydiving as it's probably the most exhilarating activity out there.

b?xxy - August 10, 2017, 11:44 am

I'm going to kill myself eventually.

Going to rent a random sports car, and drive it down the highway at top speeds until I either run out of gas or get caught.

If those happen then I'm going to shoot myself in the head.

If I don't, I wanna crash into a barricade at 200mph without a seatbelt on and use myself as a human catapult.

I want to turn 80 before I die with a whore's mouth around my cock

Ive been planning to kill myself at some point too. I wouldn't want to risk getting caught though.

Maybe wingsuiting/skydiving and just go straight into the side of a mountain would be good for me, I might just cop out and do something boring though XD

Visit every continent, marry the wife of my dreams, become a multimillionaire.
These are just a fews, I have smaller stuff I'd like to accomplish.

I don't necessarily condone what you're trying to do, but I do understand where your coming from.

For example, if I ever get diagnosed with cancer and it cannot be treated easily, I will shoot myself in the head. I would not want to see myself suffer and would not want those close to me see me in pain. I would want them to have good memories of me, not ones of where I'm sick in the hospital.

Honestly pretty much this, but I want to kill myself in a cooler way, like putting a bomb in a car, flooring it towards a wall and blowing myself up just as i hit the wall.

I don't really care about that all as much as I just want to die.

True, I guess.

Or you could shoot yourself in the head right before you crash.

Where i live you would have a better chance of winning the lottery than getting a gun.

tbh i feel like the easiest way would just to do 1mg of carfentanil and sit back as you die within seconds.

Just as long as it's painless and works it doesn't matter too much the method in my opinion.

I feel obligated to report this to law enforcement or something.

?De?dW?Iker - August 10, 2017, 1:51 pm

Tbh if I'd know I'd be dead tomorrow for example I'd go blow all my life savings, I'mma rent a good car I like for 1 day, gonna smoke weed, get drunk, try coke, and at the end of the day I'd just gather everyone who I'd consider family and friends and just have a great fun dinner, nothing special.

Though that all could change if I don't have life savings, in that case I'd rob a bank.

Deany - August 10, 2017, 1:51 pm

prob gonna hang myself tbh
