Thread: Compromised account uid=2951129 \(Brain Gear \)

braingear - August 14, 2017, 4:08 am

Account: Brain Gear - uid=2951129

Please close my account it has been compromised.

I already had a feeling couple days ago while i downloaded some stuff which i should't have but none of my av's picked it up so i thought i was fine.

DO NOT DEAL WITH HIM!

As always a quick trust scan should warn people instantly with all the red flags.

If someone can be so kind -repping and linking this thread so people don't miss it.

Also my shared skype with my partner: live:brainbotics is compromised.

Busy with retrieving it as we speak.

staff/omni can confirm this by checking IP with my current account.

Please close my hacked account.

B?ker - August 14, 2017, 4:10 am

I'm too lazy to rep nor do I give a fuck enough if it's compromised PM Staff I'd assume Omni specifically so he can investigate it. Best of luck.

Also seeing that the account has opened a currency exchange thread: -can't post links- i know i am so stupid i use it for everything else but just never bothered doing it at hf and some other places.

it is a good thing that i use different passwords and reinstalled my pc couple days before so this person does not have much data from me.

I just need someone to -rep that fucker so people know if they for some reason don't check trust scan.

There goes my flawless reputation..

edit: can't PM staff/omni because post limitation..

I get that you are mad but have a look at my rep history, i have sold big accounts for over 250$/300$ to for example Mojo from platinumcheats and various others.

Did various other big trades with many other people for much bigger amounts.

Just ask ANYONE who i have dealt with if i would do something like this.

Why didn't you check trust scan before you dealt today? or use a middleman?

I get you got scammed but you're acting like a complete moron, maybe you should be a bit less harsh on the off chance that the original owner gets their account back and decides to reimburse people due to the inability to secure his account.

The reason why I refund the other 2 people is since they are not upgraded and could not have seen that my account was compromised (trust scan)

????o? has admitted to doing fraud, scamming people and has been nothing but rude/threatening towards me while I try to solve things here. (Partially I can understand this.)

Also he has I33t and was able to do a trust scan before dealing with me yet with all the red flags what the trust scan would give he would still deal with the person who has my account.

I doubt I will refund his losses. But he is doing so well on his onion website that 120$ is nothing to him "so he said"

Dream market?

you mean the site who:

Have a scammer on the staff team

let vendors dox and blackmail buyers constantly have accounts compromised

don't banned compromised/arrested vendors

Mysteriously let vendors with 2FA get hacked?

yeah no thanks.

Yeah he is.

btw Eagle 95 also send me a msg regarding my account:
Quote:I know you can't PM me back but there won't be any need. I banned the account and notified Omni. You might be hearing from him or you might not for your account recovery. Currently you can consider account lost.

Cheers.

So ill just solve this troubles with the 2 persons and then that's it.

Not going to spend money again to get l33t/epic/uber etc on a new hf account.

Yeah that is also my guess, I just didn't know/forgot you where able to change email without actually having email access.

I got 2fa on the email to which it was set so they could never do anything if that was the case (besides logging into the hf acc, but I could easily recover it)

However that does not make up for me not having 2fa enabled.

Wondering if he still plans to refund people (aside from the one guy who had a tard fit and got closed himself) after this.

Edit: Quoted wrong post at first.

I seriously doubt it, props to him if he does, but it's kinda his fault for not having 2fa anyway.

I am, already talked to 1.

The other one still needs to contact me, I can't pm yet.

Well RIP 2 years of trading/selling/buying with over 479 rep without any single scam reports or w/e just to be closed and tossed away after my account got compromised and even pay the people back who got scammed by this hacker.

1. ranochigo already contacted me

2. arkrafay can also contact me for a payment what he lost.

Temp skype(don't contact me on my main, it is still compromised): bghackforums@outlook.com

If staff/admin read this, you can also close this account and the other one that I have no access to due typo in email with registration: braingear_backup

Thanks towards everyone who I have dealt with ?
