Award: Stratis

Would love this award. I think it looks really nice and it would be my first award. I think that I've been a pretty high quality member here since the past 2 months that I returned and became active. I have enjoyed my time here on HackForums very much and have grown to love the Cryptocurrency very fondly. I love making new threads there and keeping members up to date with the latest Crypto News. I didn't even know Cryptocurrency existed 3 months ago and I am very happy with my position right now and how much I have learned. Good luck to all and thank you, Slade, for hosting this.

Esme - August 15, 2017, 3:23 pm

I'm entering for the Dogecoinage award since I already have the Ub3r+3p1c combo.

Not exactly sure what a clean trust scan entails though... I don't have any deal disputes but anything involving IPs probably looks pretty fucked on mine since I'm using a VPN on hotel WiFi.
