Is anybody still holding their TKN?

Bought some at $1.40 and some at $0.60 which I'm still holding. Haven't heard from them in awhile but I decided to check up on their blog and came across this post:

So they're close to having a working product. Perhaps I'll grab a card whenever they are available.

Thought you were in the negatives but I realized that BTC is 2.5x higher than it was when you bought those TKN. So you got in at $1.05...nice.

Yeah, the pricing is off if you look at it

I'm on their MVP list as well. Holding 1100 TKNs right now. Hope the MVP card takes TKN to the moon! - __ - btw PAY already have their cards in use :|

Wow nice 40% gain in the last 24 hours. Is it still okay to get in now?

Probably. Still not sure how development is going but I'm very satisfied with my returns on this. Can't hurt to put some money in, although I'd wait for a better price.
