Im not going to do the method for any longer than like 1-4 hours a day. It doesnt affect me at all. $15k is about a week and some earning for me. Thats 1 week covered n im going to school real soon so obviously cant do it for 4 hours a day.

Both make you money lol. You forget im in the malware buisness if i am willing to dish out 35k for a 0day i would be able to get my funds back with a large profit, same goes with this im willing to pay what you want but you dont seem to want to work and only want me to give you 15k on hopes and dreams your shit works. OP, at this point, the only way you're getting a buyer is if you stop acting like a child. You have several people ready to give you money the moment you act legit. Clearly you have no clue how business is actually run.

To the few pushing him to act legit, stop trolling. :P

To everyone else.... ignore until he grows a brain and some stones.

To OP: Hard work pays off. Best method without hard work is to find someone with the need to work hard, and split profits first year or so, zero down. This would work better as a quiet personal transaction. But if you really were bout makin money, talkin bout those broke boiz, you wouldn't be worried about a semester off work because you'd have it in savings, with a method like yours in pocket.

"I'm not going to work ten hours a day" - Bitch I already work 10 hours a day for significantly less. You're all fucked up, go unfuck yourself.

Utter Utter bullshit!!

I don't have time to make the easiest money of my life so I will try and sell it on a forum for 1% of what is it allegedly worth.

If you really had sense then you would hire people to do the work for you, I mean in real life people, like your friends.

If my friend said hey man you wanna do a bit of work for me ill give you a thousand dollars a day I would bite their hand off.

I say 1k a day because that would be nothing considering what your 'method' can pull in day.

If you were legitimately trying to sell a working method you'd provide as much proof as possible, but you only supply the bare minimum, then you go on and on about how you only want business related replies. No wonder you won't sell anything. You know nothing about business. People suggest to use a middleman, but then you change the price to $500K or some ridiculous amount.

Why should anyone buy anything from you? People like to get at least a bare minimum of information. And a video about cash is no information at all.

If the price is 15k then people want to know more BEFORE buying. Not after. Or as an other user suggested, why not using a middle man and that middle man will release the money once the buyer made his first earnings?

Oh god, so this is what all those other threads have led to.

To top it all, you don't even want to use a middleman.

I hope no one buys this. It's a complete waste of $15,000.

Just a heads up, this guy also said that he is making a new "money making method" to earn $60,000 a day.

Chef Curry Wrote:Right now I'm working with a few people to make this upcoming money making method to make $60k a day.

This was my response.

You would be making $21,600,000 per year.

Unless you're running a business, I highly doubt that "method" is legitimate.

if you make that much GTFO off HF and start an offline business and enjoy your life.

Pretty soon you will not be trusted on Hf because this is more horrible than selling an Ebook with no proof.

What I'm trying to say is that this method isn't worth $15,000.
