Thread: Cant hit on gmaul specs, cant k0, get rekt by lower lvls in pking. what do i do???

BOOSLI - August 21, 2017, 7:46 pm

I cannot for the life of me PK. My 06-07 grandpa style pking cannot compete with these kids today. All of my fights I get, they end up in 2 different ways.

Stats:

75 Attack

90 Strength

1 Def

91 Range

44 Pray

94 Mage

1) These guys hit me 2 or 3 times with msb, big hits, and then pull out gmaul and spec me dead. They are always ALWAYS high hits to k0 me. I am even spam clicking shark karam before they spec me and i still just end up dieing.

2) I wait for a big msb xp drop and watch their health. If its a big drop and they have pretty low hp, I pull out my Gmaul and spec them. I have had over 60+ fights and I never once hit a 20+ gmaul spec in any fight. What gives? I can hit 25+ with gmaul with a regular basic attack but I cannot for some reason k0 anybody with it. I haven't got a kill in the past 40-50 fights I had. Most of them I get rekt with gmaul. I am goin through bank supplies like crazy.

Am I insta specing right? I wait for big xp drop with msb, and when I expect to get the next xp drop with msb, I switch to maul, double click spec and click target. I can't ever hit for shit though and it never works.

Why not provide video evidence of your fights? I'm pretty sure we'd pick apart what is going wrong for you.

I highly doubt you've never hit over a 20 in 60 fights. That's 100s of Msb attacks, 180 g maul hits, at least, and you're telling me none were over a 20?

Infact, even if you 4 stack your msb into maul and all hits were 20, you'd still be able to get a KO on an opponent as long as you're not trying to spec them out from full health.

If you want accurate advice on where you're going wrong, provide something for us to look at, and don't over exaggerate as much as you are, because you're doing what a lot of league players do which is passively pushing the blame onto other things than your own actions.

Man i feel ya. Pure pking nowadays is just whip out the claws/ags/maul at any hp and hope for the god spec (which comes pretty often cus 1 def). Whoever gets it first wins due to the skill cap being so low with classic pure pking. That's why i switched to bridging - much more skill dependent and even though the prod specs still happen, there's so much more you can do to avoid it. I advise giving that a shot if classic pking is getting annoying.

I can't brid for shit but I guess it's all in the practice.

Linkin Park. I just fought someone. Started off and ended like this.

Potted, I turn on hawk eye, we start attackin eachother with msb. Guy Pjs me, makes me eat a shark and karam. Gets off and my target gets back on me, hits me for 20+ twice with msb, after the first one im spam clicking shark karam, second one same thing, he pulls out dds specs me for 32-27 dead. there is no way i can out-eat these specs. I cannot spec for shit it is unbelievable. I hit the guy 3 times for 20+ with msb but somehow after the second time it was like he ate to full hp. I don't fucking get it. I eat shark karam after his first 20+ hit, he hits 20 again, i eat again and he specs me out like that. I can't do shit when i try myself.

Play an rps and practice before you lose your bank.

The only solution is to give me your account so I can do it justice.

Maybe add brew to your setup, and I think you should put gmaul-then click target-then spec..

If you're getting ko'd you need to get better at eating.
