Your money

Your decision

Go for it if you enjoy it on here

Riyu - August 22, 2017, 9:13 am

You can't upgrade to Ub3r without first getting approved.

You should have bought L33t first, then 3p1c.

Horus God - August 22, 2017, 9:15 am must bought l33t first and then waiting your uber approved.

You click here when you are eligible and you apply. Then Omniscient reviews it and either approves or declines.

Thanks for the quick answer, This is what is says when i try to click there Authorization code mismatch. Are you accessing this function correctly? Please go back and try again.

That means i am not eligible to apply ?

Also where do we find out what is eligibility criteria.

bdawn - August 22, 2017, 9:19 am

Getting at least l33t is worth it (Although I got it for free..same for Ub3r).

Try entering contests and whatnot.

Must be L33T to be able to apply.

Applications from users with less than 25 rep (and a few other small requirements) are automatically ignored/declined.

You can't apply/click any further if you don't meet the requirements.

Max_Lietz - August 22, 2017, 10:08 am

I'm gonna upgrade when I get payed out from my miner :) I like it a lot here so thats why. If you like it here then you should ?

b?xxy - August 22, 2017, 10:09 am

If you feel like you're going to use this site often, I would say go for it.

snappari2 - August 22, 2017, 12:41 pm

It's for sure worth it, I've never been as happy as when i got UB3R and yes i'm addicted to hackforums before you ask.

Gaming. - August 22, 2017, 12:57 pm

Can i get rid of it?

Mr Meeseeks - August 22, 2017, 9:19 pm

I would say that donating is definitely worth it, I see it as a way of giving back to this site and helping it stay alive. Just with free services from being a donor alone, you make back way more than what you donated.

Expires on the 5th of September.

Upgrade if you can afford it and you see yourself sticking around.
