Thread: Shopify 60 day free trial!

Arizonalce - August 22, 2017, 9:46 am

A lot of people are starting to use Shopify I have noticed, this is the best deal I have found which gives you a 60 day trail which can be cancelled at any time.

This should be more than enough time to see if you your shopify store is profitable.

Enjoy! ?

I don't know what you mean, but you will need to enter a valid vcc or cc to remove the password

Do any of you know if shopify does the SEO and drives traffic to your shop or is this something you still have to do yourself? TIA

They deffinetly do not offer that lol, you have to drive your traffic to the website.

They just provide the hosting and the platform to run your store

I am a novice at web design so my best option would be to simply go with my own install of word press w/ my own hosting. Thanks again. I always thought shopify was like ebay/amazon/etc and drove traffic to your web-store. Now I know their service simply caters to people with little to no understand of hosting/web design or people who simply want to take a shortcut. I also can relate to the security issues when hosting your own website.

Thank you for this Arizonalce, much appreciated.

Killy - August 30, 2017, 5:57 pm

thanks for this ! increase my chances of actually making something

Pyrrhus - August 30, 2017, 6:01 pm

Thanks for this

Might actually get into using shopify now

entiretv - August 30, 2017, 6:06 pm

Posting this for later. Idk I was thinking of starting shopify for random services so I might check this out in the future!
