Proof:

Has not refunded my BTC still.

I shouldn't lose money since I have sellers protection on this payment, but yeah, deal with caution.

UPDATE: Added me to his ignore list. Scammer.

I can confirm that this paypal account belongs to TH? IC???CL??T, since we were about to exchange 1-2 days ago and he was refusing to send as family/friends, then he sent as services/goods and he opened a chargeback (hopefully I hadn't send any money to him yet).

I am talking with him right now on skype and look what he claims: <http://prntscr.com/gcgwj6>
Good luck with this OP, but I am afraid you won't have your money back.

I think it's the other way around, they don't provide buyer protection for crypto currency.

Not sure though, but I got my money back. ?
