Thread: [\(\$1.49\) \[VOUCHED\] >>> GET A FREE BITCOIN DEBIT CARD <<< \[EASY\] \[CARD RECEIVED PROOF\]](#)

Raqt™ - August 25, 2017, 7:54 am

METHOD WORKING AS OF: SEPTEMBER 2017

About:

This is a straightforward, step-by-step eBook that teaches you how you can get yourself a completely free, refillable physical Bitcoin debit card with full picture guidance. The debit cards usually cost money, but with this easy step-by-step method, you'll get them for no cost whatsoever, not even with a shipping cost. The method is completely whitehat, meaning that there is nothing illegal about it at all. If, for some reason, the method does not work in your country, then you will receive a full refund.

Ineligibility: Does not work outside of Europe anymore due to VISA rule changes. Do not buy if you are not an EU-resident, as you then won't receive a refund for it not working.

I'm just wondering, is this done by participating in a survey to get a free debit card in return from SpectroCoin? No, this has got nothing to do with any SpectroCoin Survey.

The method looks very promising and works flawlessly. In a few simple steps you will receive your own personal debit card, shipped to you, for free. This is great if you want to purchase items from the Internet, but don't own a debit/credit card. Especially great if you're under 18, as many banks don't accept customers under 18 years of age.

Overall: simple, but great eBook. Definitely worth its low price!
Thanks.

Although the method didnt work for me because of country limitations, seller responded quickly and we had the matter sorted out and he refunded me promptly while giving advice as to where else I could try.

Thanx, still a thumbs up.

All good! Don't worry about the spam, it was fine, went for dinner ;) I've now figured out which countries this doesn't work in, and I have as such updated my thread.

To all new buyers, keep in mind that you will not receive a refund if you buy outside of the EU and then figure out it doesn't work for you.

No, it's got nothing to do with a survey at all, though I can understand why you'd think so if there is such a thing available. This is a SpectroCoin, physical debit card for EU residents. If there is a survey around, then I assume it's a limited time promotion.

Yes, it says "Visa Prepaid". You fill up the cards with BTC and use them as a normal card, but I guess it's via the Visa MyChoice programme, which is prepaid cards basically.

If it's a survey thing or different card provider, then this is different and not that at all. If he has the same thing going on, then I'll just make the method public. It's really no biggie tbh.
