Staff don't get involved in deals. Sorry you got scammed but you should've searched his UID and realized he was a scammer before dealing with him.

I saw his 500 rep and thought he could be trusted. And why dont ppl like him get banned. Three other people have reported him for scamming already yet no action has been taken. You might aswell just call this scamforums and not ban anyone.

taken against this person? Because I feel like nothing is going to happen to this guy. He is just gonna get away like the other three times he scammed people.

Next time dont deal with someone who has bad record or just be cautious. It's sad people like him exist but it's life man.

Yeah I got over the fact that I got scammed. I just dont want it to happen to others. For new people that just joined the forums they would just see all hos positive rep and do deals with him.

DoomxSpotlight - August 29, 2017, 6:50 am

Lmao nothing has happened to that scammer yet. Guess hackforums dont care about scammers

DoomxSpotlight - August 31, 2017, 8:31 am
