Thread: Red Dead Redemption 2 \(OFFICIAL RELEASE DATE OCT. 26TH, 2018\)

I've been ever so looking forward to the release of this game, playing the first RDR consumed much of my time lol. John Marston was a ruthless cowboy. A little disappointed that they'd postponed the release until Spring of next year. You can't rush quality though, so I can wait.

A few weeks after the release of RDR 2 is rumored to also be the release date of Bully 2, another great title. 2018 is going to be the year of GAMING.

Edit: RDR 2 OFFICIAL release date set for October 26th, 2018. A few months closer than mentioned previously!

Indeed. With the Xbox one x coming out, can't wait for all these new games.

I'm also very excited for RDR2 but Bully was always a favorite of mine. The second they announce Bully 2 (if they ever do) I'm going to go crazy. Been waiting over a decade for another sequel. And the world in Red Dead was phenomenal. RDR2 on current gen will be even better.

You're telling me man! I've been patiently waiting for RDR 2, I think that was the best game R* ever made. I also can't wait for Bully.

Think I might just play some Bully today to get me back in the mood.

I thought its release day is 01.01.2018 when originally it was 01.01.2019)))

I loved the first one, but I want more freedom to make chaos. No penalties for killing everything pls)))

Got an email yesterday that RDR 2 is coming out October 26th! Get ready, it's not all that far away ?

Now that there's an official release date set Xbox pre orders should be available soon enough.
