OP gave me a vouch copy, it is 15 pages long and has lots of information on how you should proceed to accomplish the 100$. You have to put some effort into. It's very detailed and has lots of links that can help you out. I can see it working, yea, but it's not my beach, at all. Good luck with sales man and thanks again for the opportunity.

Can you prove the wallet address? Then send a small amount from that address to a trusted member and ask them to verify?

If that is something that multiple members ask of me, I'd be happy to do it. I'm not home now, but I'd rather not risk losing anything if possible.

Online for support. Will give away one more vouch copy to a trusted Ub3r member!

Edit: just sent the vouch copy to user : Moneyroller .. waiting on a review once he's read through it.

Overall the methods I have been given from the vouch copy are known, but only if you do deep searching, the only thing different is that he walks you through it. If you have no prior knowledge of basically about anything in your life then I would recommend this e-book for you. He lays it out for you on a silver platter on where to go and what to do. The info he gives you can help you out vastly if you put in the work needed.
