Sorry for your lost. Next time use middleman. Maybe try to call paypal and explain it you were scammed. Hope you will recover the money somehow

Lukas - September 5, 2017, 1:59 pm

I do hope you end up getting your money.

One question, however. Why didn't you just get on your computer, go to PayPal, and screenshot the verification status of your account? It wouldn't have hurt to.

Damn, then there's no excuse as to why he couldn't send the payment even when you're offline. In his defense though, he did say he'd refund your money rather than completing the deal. Have you been contact regarding that?
