Thread: nekoz UID= 3685303 Attempt to make me hold a fraud funds in PayPal

McRoyal - September 6, 2017, 3:25 pm

Fraud user Profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=3685303>

In 9/3/2017 I have added nekoz in skype since He asked for someone who want to open a new forum with him so I was Interested that's why I added him in skype.

Prove of ownership of skype: <http://prntscr.com/ghzujr>

So we started to talk about Interests of me and what to do & etc. so he asked me to name the forum but I did not so since I don't have a name I told him to do that but he said I am bad at this things. so he stopped replying next days. Suddenly he asked me a question do you have [u][b](Do you have a paypal account?) he asked me? [/b][u] I have replied with yes he asked me for the paypal email address and I have gave him the paypal address and he said we can buy some stuffs for the forums today and I asked him why he use my paypal?

He replied (My Paypal account is too new So i can't buy things) so I just said ok then he stopped replying so I sent a text to him saying Hi. He told me do you have another paypal email? I told him why? He said (can't send to urs)

He said to me (Your Paypal can hold G&S? As i see it lets me as G&S? We need to start buying things for the forum today. So i don't have much time)

I have replied to him with (nope my paypal don't let me buy sometimes)

Then suddenly he said to me do you Recieved $400 To your Paypal?

I have told him you did send 400 USD? he said yes. I told him The payment got on hold because goods and services for 3 days lol.

Then he did ask me to refund it so I asked him why he can't wait 3 days but he said Nah, i will ask my buddy.

so I tried to refund but it don't let me to and after many retries I tried to refresh page and I can't find the refund button anymore I asked him if he owns the paypal he sent money from he just keep saying just refund my money and I told him I can't it don't let me to he told me just to call paypal And I did leave them a message so I was carious about this and I Asked him to give me Id that prove he owns the paypal he refused too and he said to me I am scammer and he will call paypal and he threat to call the police.

Screenshot of payment: <https://image.prntscr.com/image/aWzqFGgESRiJxcjHaGcRLQ.png>

Screenshot of my message to paypal:
https://image.prntscr.com/image/EEgVdT_x_QUIKe2oRqOAYAug.png

No refund option anymore <https://image.prntscr.com/image/QOB5oEf5TUCZqaX0fFeoXA.png> so this guy sent 100% carded money This is a bug to bypass paypal protection!

Thanks for adding this info!

Baby Groot - September 7, 2017, 8:11 am

I heard there was a guy on here who lost nearly $400/$500 from someone on here from someone who was acting as an imposer and took that amount of money from the persons PayPal, maybe its connected?

This user is one big joke. So he pm'd multiple times begingng + spamming me on skype to start a forum with me. Ofcourse, i don't have problems starting a forum but don't spam me if i'm busy. So i decided to just let him buy the servers and all the stuffs needed for the forum. As i never started a forum. He then gave me his Paypal e-mail because he was willing to recieve money from me so that he could buy. Why would he share his Paypal e-mail without any reason? Think twice before judging me people. I'm not a broke kid to scam you for $400 Paypal. I make thousands from investing more then your entire house rent + your entire bank account. I don't need to scam shit from you. All my exchanges i did on here are legit and never had any issue with a seler. All btc sellers who traded with me can vouch for me. I've been asking you multiple times to just refund my money till now you haven't done anythng. So i decided to fill a report to Paypal and they're looking into it. And this can lead getting your account limited because you denying to refund my money what i asked you to do.

You're stupid.No person who steals money will ask for their money back. I asked this guy 5 times now to give my money back. I even called Paypal today they said he is able to refund. And they will soon limit his account. Get your facts up.

KyFu - September 7, 2017, 1:01 pm

Get my facts up? Buddy. I've been dealing with PayPal for years.

They're not going to "limit his account" soon if he doesn't refund you the money. You send it as G&S. PayPal will hold the funds, and then give the user who has the funds, 10 days to sort the mess out over deal disputes, and then if you take it to a PayPal claim, that's when it takes another 10 days for PayPal to examine the report themselves.

Get YOUR facts up, Kid.

Disagree on this point ?

Regardless, if there were no goods/services sent or no tracking number, it'll most likely get refunded. Just go on PayPal classic and refund it, I don't see what the issue is since nekoz wants the money back and McRoyal doesn't want 'carded' money

Even if it is carded or not, that is his business. Just refund it and go your separate way, if it is not carded and you are wrong. This might go in a bad direction for you.

Through all of this gibberish I have yet to see an explanation as to who Katelyn Gorder is, and why the email address associated to the account does not exist.

Until you can explain this shit, OPs claims seem pretty freaking obvious.

McRoyal - September 7, 2017, 5:01 pm

Also, it does matter if it's carded or not. A user already posted some evidence that it might be carded, and if it truly is carded then the so-called nekoz is trying to simply suspend my Paypal account, and also suspend mine here in this website by his absurd report, which is funny enough since he joined the website less than a month ago and I've been here for like a year. I've a doubt that he just creates multiple accounts to pull this scam off users of this website who are legit.

Anyways, as I said before I've contacted Paypal and they're definitely issuing a refund once the transaction(that by the way didn't even finish processing so I don't even have the money yet, unlike what nekoz said about me getting away with the money), the fact that the money didn't get instantly transferred to my account makes you even more sketchier.

I'm not playing games here, and by the way I'm not from India you sick fuck. I'm definitely refunding your money and reporting you to Paypal and they'll decide whether it's carded money or not by themselves. I'm warning you, nekoz, if you're really pulling off what I'm speculating here then Paypal are gonna shut you down, forever. I really hope it's just a misunderstanding and you're getting your money back and just fuck off. I've dealt with people and made transactions on this website for more than 400$ I definitely have no interest in scamming you off for such a little sum of money.

M3m3Destr0y3r - September 8, 2017, 10:42 am

Are you able to send me the details about the teacher over PM? Just so that I can confirm that the phone number belongs to the teacher 100%.

I can literally call her up right now and record it (if she gives me her consent to do so), just don't want to do it when she has a class.

Step 1. Look at the address on the payment from him (last image)

Step 2. Go to google maps, find school associated at that exact address.

Call paypal right now and explain the situation. More importantly, DO NOT TOUCH THE MONEY. Let it sit and whatever you do, do not use it

This happens to streamers on twitch a lot - to keep yourself out of legal trouble, you need to contact your local police right now.

This. Don't sell, deposit, or send anything. Call PayPal.

Might be worth after you have got it sorted to change your Paypal email address so he cannot keep sending you money?

Eagle 95 - September 8, 2017, 1:40 pm

This was a dumb situation. I hope you get everything sorted out with PayPal. Also, seek legal action/contact police on that kid. Hopefully he'll be grounded until he's 30.

McRoyal - September 8, 2017, 1:47 pm

PayPal just made me wait 30 minutes on hold so I decided to make a new paypal account since this one is limited and paypal doesn't seem to be nice enough to help me but the good part I don't have money left in balance in the account that was limited thanks god.

Thanks for trying to help me Eagle! ? and thanks for everyone who stand with me in this bad situation!

NA Riven - September 8, 2017, 1:47 pm

Sad to see this happen. I hope he didn't use a VPN and that PayPal keeps logs of the IP people log in with, so you can tell this to the police. I hope your account gets fixed.

No do NOT make a new PayPal account. AFAIK you can only have 1 PayPal account per person. So if you do that you might fuck yourself up.

Legally (by their ToS) you can have two, one personal one business account but yeah, don't create new ones, be patient.

Try and stick to dealing with verified business accounts.

Magicmann - September 17, 2017, 9:32 am

I'd just like to drop in and say that it's funny how people are saying you're naive for asking someone to provide proof of identity on a forum like this. I've done hundreds of thousands of dollars in exchanges here, and I've required some people provide proof of identity and they have. Just saying that it all depends on situation. This situation is a fucked up one.
