Last time i sold one it went for 90 dollars in like 24hours.

Lvling up a new account to 25 and getting it to grandmaster isnt exactly a walk in the park you know. How many gm accs have you seen here on hf?

If you can play at GM level, you can get out of placements on GM level in a night.

If your main was gm last season you can just lose 10 games and still get gm. Brand new account is a whole different story.

John Player Special - September 7, 2017, 6:37 pm

What is the level of the acc i assume it aint 45 right?

Aimbot x$

new acc if you want full access 40€

lvl up to 25lvl tons of work or x$

+ risk of getting banned

that sums up to alot of $$$

oh my god. no, that's not how it works. If you can play at GM level, you can play on any account, not just your account. Otherwise you aren't really a GM and won't stay there long.
