Thread: How do you wipe?

Petty - September 7, 2017, 12:35 am

I stand up, sort of bent over, front to back.

some people "sit down" and honestly i understand that for girls but what about guys? How in the world do you sit to wipe if you're a guy without getting shit on your satchel and weiner. im serious. how.

You do it the normal way, or at least, the way I do it too. The real question is do you scrunch or fold.

a combination of both. my brother is a real folder but i dont see the point in that.

i just make a neat thing to wipe my butt with.

i just make a neat thing to wipe my butt with.I was a scruncher when I was little and then a folder for my early teenage years. Now I just wrap my open palm with the toilet paper sort of Egyptian mummy style and open palm wipe my ass. Effective and comfortable.

Thought this was a thread referencing data deletion. Why am I not surprised.

I sit on the toilet, lean my body to left, lift my ass up and use my right hand to wipe... the most easiest and comfortable way.

Can't believe someone made thread on this.

Good going OP
