I would love it if there were more design. To me there is no story and it looks kinda plain.

Baby Groot - September 7, 2017, 4:19 am

I like what you have done, the colours all match perfectly also.

Congratulations on making something pretty cool.

Frankey - September 7, 2017, 4:19 am

Look's sick! :D Would love to have it as my desktop background. I'll send you a PM! :)

thank you so much mate ?

Motusora - September 7, 2017, 4:56 am

it's nice , minimal design but you have to fix few things the light of the moon (or is it another planet ?) should be on the other side since the light source is from the sun .

the sun's reflection should be more visible and why those falling stars are going up ? or maybe it's just your style :)

anyway , good job

Thank you for the feedback mate ?

well first yeah youre right the lighting isnt correct since its a random work not too much intereset in logical thing but at the end youre right and thank you so much for letting me know about the sun reflicion ijust want it to be as that gradient

the stars are random too ?

Holy..love how sharp and simple it is, yet unique asf. Great color selection as well!
