Thread: E-Whoreing Guide for the Beginner

skim - July 28, 2010, 12:55 am

This guide is for the beginner E-whore, follow this small guide and I assure you with a little patience you'll make money.

- I. Gmail
- II. Paypal
- III. Craigslist
- IV. Posting on Craigslist
- V. E-whore
- VI. Making your Paypal able to send/buy

I.

First we are going to go over to <http://gmail.com> and make a Gmail account, this account is going to be the account you are using for everything, so this is the name you are going to be sticking with throughout your E-whoreing in this method, so make it sound good, but not too good. (i.e. samanthaparker88@gmail.com)

II.

Once you have your appropriate Gmail account go over to <http://paypal.com> and register a Paypal account with your Gmail account. Remember when making a Paypal account you CAN NOT change the name you sign up with it, so make sure you put the same name as your gmail (so ours would be Samantha Parker). Also I would go ahead and confirm the email (as you will need to to receive money).

III.

Now we're going to go over to <http://craigslist.net>, and make an account with our Gmail account, this normally takes like 30 seconds. To post in the section we're posting in you have to verify your Craigslist account with a phone, don't bother trying Google Voice it does not work. Either use a home phone, cell phone, or a friend's phone, you won't get in trouble at all for doing this. A thing to remember about Craigslist is that your posts might get flagged/deleted, if so you can repost, but if you post too much your account WILL BE suspended. Too much is like 3 posts a day, and also don't make every post/post title the same they will catch on to that.

IV.

At this point you've done most of the work, you're now going to go on your Craigslist account and find a city you know the area of, and don't pick a big city like New York. I really stress go for smaller cities in your state you might know about; like population of 100,000 or something. You're going to go to the Romance section and find Sex with No Strings Attached. Here you're going to post something titled: "22 year old looking for older man" or "amateur girl in need of experience". Your actual post should say "title says it all message me if interested" and include a picture of choice (I suggest nothing crazy, find a E-whore pack with a average girl, something you'd hit, but nothing "unbelievable", and remember to have more pictures of this girl).

V.

Once you post on Craigslist you'll get responses immediately and from here you're going to respond, and if they bug you asking for MSN or Yahoo just tell them to make a Gmail account and you can Gmail Chat them. Once you get this far it's all about your talking skills, but I'll explain my method, but before I start there are a few quick answers to questions you'll get asked/run into:

Can you text/call me? My phone got chewed up by my boston terrier so i'm waiting for my replacement=[(sounds retarded but does work)

How am I going to get a hold of you if you're close? I'll have my laptop and airtime card so I can email you no worries=]

Do you have Skype or a Cam? My laptop is so old I have XP no microphone or webcam sorry
Now for my method:

You'll get the basic "hey how are you what are you looking for" and just be like "i posted in sex with no strings attached so that should tell you". Talk to the guy back and forth exchange pictures, again make sure your pictures aren't amazing just decent looking. If they ask why such a pretty girl is getting guys on Craigslist say I don't like guys being attached and guys on here never are. If they ask where you live say you live 25 minutes away from whatever city you posted in. Eventually you're going to talk on how you're going to meet and you'll say you want to meet in a public place then go from there (I always choose the Home Depot parking lot of whatever city you posted in). Once you agree on that say your Tom Tom says it's only 35 minutes away, and they'll say okay let's meet there at whatever time. NOTE: IF THEY SAY THEY DON'T HAVE A PAYPAL TELL THEM IT ONLY TAKES 2 SECONDS TO MAKE ONE IF YOU HAVE A CC/BANK ACCOUNT. This is the part where you say "can you send me like 10$ gas money?=[)]". Now it's up to you whether you think they're gullible enough to go with the "i don't have enough to get there=[[but i have my card setup to my paypal", or the "i do this when meeting up with guys on Craigslist to know the guy is serious about meeting and not going to stand me up, and for my safety, that way i'll have something to link to the guy other than a phone number or name on the internet", don't forget to add that it's late and you're the girl you're vulnerable, there's always going to be the guy saying no I'll give you money when you get here; this is where you have to know what to say. Also say you've met up with 5 guys on Craigslist and one wasn't very nice so that's the rule you made for yourself when meeting guys on Craigslist. This is just my method with a little bit of convincing you can get the vulnerable guy. Once you've got the gullible idiot to send 10$ you're going to say "alrighty thank you i'll see you in 35 minutes?". Once they have confirmed they left keep the time and wait 20 minutes (you see most people on Craigslist communicate with Blackberrys or iPhones). After 20 minutes is up you're going to email them saying "omg i just ran out of gas at this shell station", and they're going to say "where are you ill come". Make sure you say you have no idea where you are and that it's just a Shell station and road (no landmarks). Say you're going to ask some people for money, and of course no one ends up giving you money. Say there's 10 black guys outside of the gas station door and they keep looking at you and pointing and you're really scared (make it convincing). After alot of wimpering the gullible idiot is definately going to send more money your way.

VI.

The best way to make your Paypal able to send/buy is to go to your local supermarket (NOT Wal-Mart) and buy a Vanilla Visa Gift Card for $25. Go to <http://vanillavisa.com> and register your card to the name on your Paypal and save the Billing Address etc. and put that information as your Home location on your Paypal. Then add the Credit Card to your Paypal, and Paypal will charge you $1.95, now go back to <http://vanillavisa.com> and login and look at where they charged you; there will be a code there which you put in your Paypal to verify the card (Paypal will refund the $1.95). Now you can send/buy with the money on your Paypal balance. The Vanilla Visa card you can use IRL to buy your Mcdonalds/Pot/Beastiality Magazines/whatever. The card will stay registered on your Paypal until the expiration date.

This concludes my E-Whoreing guide, and since "E-Whoreing" isn't an actual word don't tell me I spelled it wrong. If you want proof here's 3 3 hour shifts I've done of this from 11pm-2am:

(the names that have the same color are the wonderful people who believed I was stranded)

Cheers and good luck

MarketExpert - July 28, 2010, 9:35 pm

This guide is amazing, I can definitely see myself using this, (couldn't before as I had no possible way of cashing out). Thank you Sir.

n1ckkkkk - July 29, 2010, 12:54 am

Does the Billing address have to be real on the whores paypal?

C-Digg - July 29, 2010, 1:14 am

Trolll - July 29, 2010, 5:06 pm

Compared the two guides and there nothing similar. Skim goes into detail and explains the method.

Widow's Peak - July 29, 2010, 5:33 pm

Kantos - July 29, 2010, 7:09 pm

Great guide, will be doing this as soon as I purchase a card.

hgj221 - July 29, 2010, 9:27 pm

Great tut :D

Can we stop posting tutorials on this? It's seriously fucking hard enough as it is.

Reputation - July 30, 2010, 8:35 am

It's ok, I do think that you should put some colour in your appearance though, it makes it rather tedious to read :) <3

Nice tutorial, but I have a quesiton:

I tried to make a paypal account with an american express giftcard and the 4 digit code does not show on the charge.

Will it eventually show up, or has paypal decided to keep my money and make it where I cannot verify my card?

skim - August 2, 2010, 8:41 pm

Jtou, I don't do cards like that so I don't know, check online where your charges would be put. Like I said I've only used Vanilla Visa Gift Cards sorry lol at the "black guys" ?

CGfreak102 - August 20, 2010, 9:01 am

I gotta try this, seems easy enough.

Just a question about the paypal thing with the visa card. When you add it can how do you use it. Can you use it like a normal credit card and it just uses the balance off your paypal account. Or do you need to send money to the card and wait a few days?

skim - August 21, 2010, 2:31 pm

CGfreak102, when you add a in my case Vanilla Visa Gift Card to the Paypal, Paypal charges like $1.95 and then puts that in your Paypal account, you then go to Vanilla Visa's site and login and find the transaction and there's a pin number which you enter in your Paypal to confirm the card. When you buy stuff on the net with the Paypal you can chose from your card or from your current Paypal balance. I just use the card to confirm a Paypal then use the rest of the card IRL and then send the money I make from E-whoreing to another Paypal and juggle the money for a few weeks, you have to be careful cause Paypal's get limited pretty easily now.

CGfreak102 - August 21, 2010, 3:04 pm

i see. Ok so you just basically use the card to verify it, you don't use the card to take out funds at all?

skim - August 21, 2010, 4:24 pm

(Aug 21, 2010 03:04 PM)CGfreak102 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) i see. Ok so you just basically use the card to verify it, you don't use the card to take out funds at all?Exactly, but you can do whatever you want I just don't suggest using GreenDot prepaid cards, they're a joke ucntt0uchdis - August 21, 2010, 9:31 pm

SO do you stick with the same paypal?

I would imagine they might file claims and that could hurt things no?

DarkLight188 - August 23, 2010, 8:25 pm

Tip: Have a page setup as donation button, I'm pretty sure all payments through paypal as a donation are final, been a while since I checked though.

pwntoken - August 23, 2010, 9:47 pm

And what if they did a chargeback and PP limited you on it ?/

skim - August 24, 2010, 2:33 pm

(Aug 23, 2010 09:47 PM)Encrypted32 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) And what if they did a chargeback and PP limited you on it ?/This is where your knowledge of Paypal comes in, if you're afraid of being limited send the money once you receive it to another Paypal. Limited Paypals suck but you can always get the money back in 6 months.

Complete the guide with other sites people could use, some basic definitions like what e-whoring is at the beginning of the tutorial, and add some colors and formatting, and it will get stickied.

MeDdErS - October 24, 2010, 9:14 am

One question: Why is the PayPal balance $156.36 when it's meant to be $156.95 by calculating all the transactions?

True 2k8 - October 24, 2010, 12:50 pm

pretty nice guide haha, good shit

stupid_hacker - October 25, 2010, 1:01 am

Anybody who could verify my account? ;)

Im going to start E-whoring thank you alot for this

Divinity - November 6, 2010, 11:09 am

Nice guide but I can not agree with the Craigslist part. Chat sites are so much faster if you get the right people and make you way more money.

skim - December 6, 2010, 6:11 pm

I've recently came back to this thread and will start responding when questions arise, and to Crow, if you still read this thread, I'll start working on it, but have never ventured outside of Craigslist, as selling nudes on chat sites is more risky.
