Thread: What is your biggest weakness/strong point when it comes to E-Whoring/SE?

KelseyM - September 14, 2017, 10:30 pm

My weakness is definitely my low tolerance for bullshit, I feel like I have let some customers slip through my fingers because I went cold on them a little too fast, treated them as a time waster when they weren't.

My strength, would definitely be my SE game, if i'm using traffic methods other than kik, I can convert a ton of buyers, it's a mix up between that, and being able to complete any verification request.

Interested to hear about your weaknesses/strong points.

TridentX - September 14, 2017, 10:42 pm

I agree with the low tolerance for bullshit. Anyone that does this a while begins to give people a quick hook instead of waiting a little longer to see if they are serious.

I would say that as a strong point, I use a lot of basic sales techniques to get people to buy. I'm not ashamed to admit that I have given away nudes and nude previews to get a sale. That's no different than a supermarket giving away free samples. If that free cheese square tastes good and you're hungry enough, you'll buy.

I've given them a low price to start and "upsold" them. For example, I would start with 5 pics for $7. Then tell them let's make it 5 "live" pics for $15. Then it became 5 live pics with sexting for $25.

Or my personal favorite is the Loss Leader. You've all seen where a retailer will offer a cheap product to get you into the store so they can sell you something else. Well I might sell 5 pics for $5 just to get them interested and then sell them a custom vid for $30 or a pair of panties for $50. It helps to have female partners.

So the moral of that little story is that you have millions of ways to get people to give you their money.

kookur - September 14, 2017, 10:56 pm

Why are you SE'ing if you're real?

Real or not, I still need to convince people to buy. Also, most of the time i'm not using my own pictures, just doing the verifications myself and trying to look like the girl in the pack i'm using.

You must think she has it easier since she's a female. A timewaster is a timewaster no matter who you are.

I love the cheese analogy, your replies are always so HQ.

I do the upsell a ton, it is a great technique to get people to purchase once, then milk them from there. It works time and time again, glad to see you are doing it too.

I'm actually thinking about an ebook that adapts classic sales techniques to ewhoring. But you know, most books are scams and no matter how good the book is, you're competing with the reputation of other ebooks.

Back to upselling, it's amazing when you really hook them in.

do not sell live pictures to these please, exercising them for expensive stuff reduces the effectiveness of the overall.

the more they are distanced, the more better, power to you.

What?

I don't understand what you are trying to say at all.

I do this all the time!! I created a thread about it and literally everyone was calling me stupid, but it works like a treat Nice work. But i would raise the bar with premade videos. not live pics and after that custom videos. no. this is alot of hustle when you can just sell them 1.) 30 pics for 20$. 2.) some videos of your choice for 30$.

Juust an opinion btw.

At the risk of revealing how I do this I will explain the reasoning behind selling "live" photos.

My ewhoring methodology revolves around interaction.

Men can get images and video anywhere on the internet. They really have no need to purchase any from me. another ewhore or a woman for that matter. So my objective is to offer them something that they can't get anywhere else - a personalized experience. It's not to make it easier for other ewhores to sell. Why? You're my competition. I'm trying to get rid of you.

By offering the "live" pics, I am doing 2 things simultaneously:

1 - I am establishing I am real and verifying that reality by selling them pictures of myself at that time. not something that might have been taken years ago.

2 - I am separating myself from the rest of the competition. Thereby making myself look like a better offer to them.

When they get to me, they have encountered a few ewhores. They have gotten the "Buy my pics" or "Buy my vids" pitch. They are already tired of that. So I take them away from it. I actually talk to them for a few minutes. And then I make my offer. If you actually talk to these guys you will find out what they really want. And most of the time, it's the interaction, not just pics and vids. So at that point, I sell them the interaction. Do they get a few pics and vids? Sure. But they also get what they really want.

And since they got what they really wanted, they keep coming back. Then I can sell them custom pics or vids or panties or audio clips or anything. They believe I'm real and they know that I will deliver. I have established a relationship. And that relationship causes them to ignore the people looking for that one time sale.

And it started with the offer of a "live" pic.

that's cool. how are you pulling this up? a real beautifull and sexy and young girl working with you? and you are selling her/her pack ? and you are living with her?

i can't see how this would easily work other than this. if your pack is not legendary.

I work with 2 different women and I have them update the packs regularly. I do the pics and vids and they do the video chats and of course the custom content.

yes, i wouldn't cut my money for no female. and there isn't a need for them that much i think, to get the money.

of course, i don't know how much you make. mind if i ask?

also, the girls you work with are: "beautifull, sexy, young"? or average... ?

in any way i should admit, you are an exceptional ewhore.

Pre-eminent - September 15, 2017, 5:46 am

Double milking, SE, and Verification is my strengths, but my weakness is probably my traffic source as most are timewasters.

You wouldn't share your money with a woman that helped you make more? If they weren't adding to my bottom line, I wouldn't need them. It's called an investment and most people don't want to do it.

ctOS - September 15, 2017, 7:03 am

Impatience is my weakness—my strong points are non-existent.

A halfwit can string together a strip tease set and reply between each picture.

"woman".

they don't sell in this bussines. i need at least a girl who is "beautifull, sexy, young" to sell out.
