Thread: Dragon's Breath / Influence Exclusive Release

AvessoVision - September 17, 2017, 3:23 pm

The previous sneaker that was exclusively released for Influence was quite outdated and I felt the need to up the game a little bit.

I had these custom sneakers done today only on two color combos here.

I decided to start a better and upgraded version of the current sneaker.

I feel like this design captures the essence of the group a lot better than the previous one.

Feel free to let your opinions flow as for criticism you know it's always welcome.

Let's cut to the point and have a look at the upgraded version of the Influence sneakers, shall we?

What do you think about them?

Thank you,

Yes it's quite hard to make these real and wouldn't be that practical I think Luckily it's just a design we can all look at. Usually they don't release shoes like these, they basically get custom painted by someone.

just my view but I think this part <https://gyazo.com/a5ae426c78e4fe3f36689d391c82219b> brings it down a lot, you have some very detailed parts but then a few also something that looks like it would take you are few seconds. The bottom also <https://gyazo.com/e7b85580277ca4b1ecea98af691135b5> the rest looks great but it feels like two different styles when you have so much detail in certain parts yet some that have just a solid block of 1-2 colours. I hope you dont find my criticism too harsh I think most is very well done, gl :).
