Your best bet would be to use the Contact Form page and explain your story.

Also to add onto this, if you enable you 2FA make sure you back that up. Omni charged 20 bucks if you lose that.

Well you don't NEED your email, as you can login using your username.

You will need your email to reset your password though. I think you can reset your email in the USERCP but it will require your password.
