Thread: New Twitch Offline Screen

oRequiem - September 19, 2017, 1:18 am

So I decided I wanted my Twitch to be Red Themed so I remade my Offline Screen since my .psd file for photoshop got corrupted for whatever reason.
Let me know what you think.

It looks sweet dude, what's the font you used for the sleepy?

Really nice design oRequiem. Simple is always good. Just possibly you could add something like textures or patterns to make the background of it a bit more interesting.

I'm sorry but it looks dope to me kinda looks like 'Sleepy is Offliney' not sure if that's what you intended

I did, I also added color correction.

I don't want to put too much work into it since it's just an Offline Screen when people go to my channel.

I like it but I think it needs some design in the background.

Looks awesome, nicely done.

Very clean tough. 8/10 in my opinion.

Could use some collors.
