Thread: Can I Make a Youtube Channel if my Channel got closed

syudfaidsa - September 19, 2017, 7:32 pm

Simple question, if i got my channel ban for breaking the youtube TOS, am I allowed to make a new channel.

Do i risk getting my new channel closed?

wouldn't worry about it if you don't do the same thing you did originally

I'd imagine you will be fine. You are likely not IP banned.

Only one way to find out I guess.

anything you did to get your channel closed is gone with the channel, so yeah go ahead and make a new one.

Just go ahead and make a new account, try not to break the TOS and if you have to consider finding ways to bypass it if that makes sense.

did you account past 3 copyright warnings? thats why you got banned?

Well their Terms of Services says you can't, but I'm 100% sure they won't do anything to you if you make a new channel.

I wouldn't worry about it. If you want to be safe, get your IP Address changed so they wouldn't suspect anything. But I wouldn't worry about it at all.

You can, ive seen people get banned and then come back days later.

Dar?k - September 20, 2017, 5:45 am

It's not allowed but I've seen people doing it anyway so I don't think that anything will happen.
