I will pay you more than 100$ if you can make me earn 1000$

I wouldn't mind. Tips always appreciated. You will see, beside all I am a good guy. While we make money we would have also personal conversations.

Side Effects - September 20, 2017, 8:32 am

Can you add more details? How many people are you willing to mentor? Will you mentor about an exact field?

Fluffy Bunny - September 20, 2017, 8:36 am

How about i pay you more than 100 bucks if you help me reach 1000$ and paying you after the goal is accomplished? like somewhere 200-300?

yeah i get u but what's the point of wasting for 100$ if not willing to waste for 200-300$? don't get me wrong but i'm just wondering ??

Because once you paid, you will get 5x more motivation to work because you already spent money. And my time is precious, I currently work on over 7 projects and I wouldn't like to work with time wasters. Not saying that you are one but I got contacted by so many people here asking for vouch - sent to them and nothing. So I play on secure only. If you want it's ok, if you don't it's also ok, I don't lose anything Nah, i absolutely get you and whatever you mean. Not forced you to mentor me or anything, Just as stated above was a question. Of course everyone has a time and their time is precious, So is mine. From what i see you seem trustworthy. Would have given a try if i had 100 buck atm. Will keep an eye on this topic, GLWS. hope you make someone a bit richer ???

The main part of this is that me and the customer are gonna work together, so like he is going to become my worker and he will help me while he learn in the meantime. Because having everything on theory isn't enough, you must know how to execute it. That's what I am planning to do

Oh so as i understood you're hiring, teaching, mentoring and helping to understand how your product(s) work and getting them into it. seems like an investment to me, Good luck hope you find people!

I'll talked with NeverEnd regularly for a couple of days now. Let just say that I have been really hard on him to test if he is a scammer or not. Now for what I can take from it, I will join his mentorship program. He seem legit enough to invest in this after talking terms and agreements with him.

Super nice guy and easy to deal with!
