Thread: Molten Inferno Dragon / Influence Exclusive

AvessoVision - September 20, 2017, 8:43 am

I don't know how I ended up doing this, but I think the actual dragon mascot had something to do with it. I felt like I did too many illustrations and ignored by actual recent style that I'm so proud of. This took a total of a few hours with a lot of breaks in-between. To those interested in how I ended up with this, I have uploaded the reference images below so you can see what's been going on with it. You just need a lot of patience especially when I haven't used pen tool at all, just my 10 and 5px pixel round brush and a mouse. I maintained the actual Influence theme and followed the current color scheme with a powerful glow.

Please let me know what you do and do not like. Feedback is always welcome!

It was completely made in Photoshop.
