Thread: Cartoon or children's book ideas.

Lots of creative users on here, was wondering have you had any good cartoon or children's book ideas? Yes so I can steal them. Rick and Morty was started out by just winning a competition they didn't really care about. Kinda amazing.

You guys had any cool ideas? Feel free to share them.

Spoiler (Click to View) I'm kidding about stealing them, generally interested.

I have somewhat of an idea.

Not sure if you remember this show: Ed, Edd, & Eddy.

Same concept, but friends fighting over a girl instead.

Randomly popped up in my mind, thought I'd share.

Can you please elaborate? What do you exactly mean by ideas? Is it new character or new stories?

I would love to help you.

Anything really, I was going to make a competition ($20) where you can share your cartoon or children's book idea. The best one (imo) would win. Just a fun thing to do really.

So the whole story is 3 friends fighting over a girl? Hmm, I can see it being a good little short I suppose :)

Maybe different type of episodes for a long period of time of her leading them on I guess, making it funny somehow.

That would be cool :) Make it into a small comic
