So he's using his group as an income?

He's certainly not using his group as a charity.

Look at his profile status - He's an ENTREPRENEUR -

Now even though this is an ONLINE HACKING FORUM, I'm sure there are MANY self PROCLAIMED entrepreneurs who are willing to prey on the weak willed for some cash money

Everyone can call himself an ENTREPRENEUR, proclaimed indeed. Anyway, that people fall for this.
Group is probably gone within 1 Month anyway.

Try looking at what the thread tells you.

You get access to a private section no one else but other people who bought in has access to.
This section/subforum might contain very nice things that are worth more than $75
Maybe put two and two together next time and of course read all of the thread before replying. ?

Pompeyo - September 26, 2017, 1:30 pm

Can you people just stop posting stupid shit unless it's related to the thread? He can charge $75.00 if he wants to, he paid the fuckin money to do so. His group, his choices.
He has clearly mentioned what the perks are and why you should pay the cost.

I haven't come across any pentesting resource in the PENTESTING subforum worth $75...

Real pentesting resources are worth MORE than $75. OSCP's PWK is $800 and the tools that you use are FREE so maybe I'm wrong here, but $75 for all these great resources is too good to be true like the ebooks teaching you how to make $50000 in two weeks, but the books cost $35.

John Player Special - September 26, 2017, 1:31 pm

Listen up people, he only charges 75$ a d that is nothing, his group offers great content and a freaking awesome userbar.

He paid atleast 5k to get this group there is nothing wronf about making some money back he aint the first who does this tough ?

I've definitely read the thread, as well as his previous one. It's all so nice what he is claiming about the nice private tutorials and guides only his buyers have access to, he even contacted me there were 15+ threads, would I consider $75 for a few methods? Yes. Would I consider $75 for a group where I could be kicked out of any moment and thus not having access to the guides anymore? Definitely not.

If he sells the group do people still have access to those resources?

If they are kept in, yes. But they will probably be kicked anyway. Then no.

Unless you screenshot all threads or something.

Unless you screenshot all threads or something.so $75 for something that is temporary? I just want to be sure before I purchase the buy in.

Let's pan this out for you. I know you lack the mental capacity.

You join the group, you can view the content posted.

The group is sold & the content is wiped, you don't get access to it after that.

But, if you're not an asshat, you will join the group and view the contents of it and save it somewhere so you can have it for yourself.

Ask Nex+ the ENTREPRENEUR himself. He probably can give you the best answer.

Sounds like a great way to spend $75! I see myself purchasing the entry fee VERY VERY soon. Thank you for the GREAT advice. I am now a MUCH more CONFIDENT buyer!
