Thread: Veteran Ape Spirit / Influence Exclusive

AvessoVision - September 21, 2017, 9:45 am

Since my first release on the Influence Molten Inferno I've decided to explore more into this style and it's been going good so far. Took Don's ape character and made it into a tough leader somehow that is basically not a living being but more of a spirit (hence the glowing eyes and empty skull). For those that might get confused, that is a bandana. Not that much to say though. I had fun working on it, although it went through a lot of changes. Feedback and criticism is always welcome.

It was completely made in Photoshop.

Thank you!

From my perspective, this type of work will not look right as an avatar though. It's also a hassle to be putting so much details in 100x100.

Much appreciated. You still like it even with the rabbit teeth.
