Thread: [\[TORQUE\] \[ANYONE CAN ENTER\]\] 8x 3PIC UPGRADE GIVEAWAY](#)

Peter - September 25, 2017, 4:30 am

Alright boys, keeping this short and sweet - here's the deal. I'm upgrading 8 members to 3PIC or 6 upgrades to 3PIC and one gift award - whichever comes first.

The only way to enter is by doing one of the following:

Tell us what your favourite car is and why (show us a picture to while you're at it);

Tell us what your favourite car mod is and why; or

Tell us a funny joke (10 points if I actually laugh).

It's that simple. Make all your submissions below. You can enter more than once.

I'll be choosing the winners randomly and throughout a period of time (if I see someone worthy, I'll go for it).

Best of luck.

My favorite car is the Saab 93 Aero. It looks beautiful, even though it's old. But the HorsePower it has for that price range.... Insane. Saab 9-3 2.8T V6, 250 Horse Power, amazing. You can get this car for under 6K. I'm being realistic. I could choose a Nissan-GTR or an Audi R8, but it's too cliché, everyone will choose it. And ot be completely honest, I can afford this car when I turn 18/21, a car such as Porche 911 would be way out of my price range, and it's too casual. I like the brutal look of the saab 9-3. (station wagon, not the Cabrio version. My dad currently has one and if a guy thinks he is badass with his Golf GTI, one hit on the gas pedal and he's miles away. People think that these kind of cars are old rusty scrap metals, while in fact it was a top-tier car in the time it was made.

The rear looks sexy well, same goes for the interior. I'd rather buy a car like this than to spend my hard-earned money on a sports car that is useless anyway in my country because of the speed limits.

My favourite car is the Nissan Skyline R32. The car has an extremely modernised look for it's age and boasts around 270+ BHP on a standard 2.5L model. Amazing car with a wonderfully sexy design.

I chose the joke:

A man is lying on the beach, wearing nothing but a cap over his crotch. A woman passing by remarks, "If you were any sort of a gentleman, you would lift your hat to a lady." He replies, "If you were any sort of a sexy lady, the hat would lift by itself."

Not really interested in the 3P1C but I have to say my favourite car is Mercedes Benz E350. It's really an amazing car and I really hope to own it someday.

It's a modern sedan, has 260 HP.

My favourite car is the Ford Mustang 2016. V-8 Engine, 4250 RPM and 5000 cc OMG it's a beast. I prefer this over the other vehicles because of usability and practicality. Wouldn't drive a Bugatti everywhere ya know.

Neon Lights because they make the car more attractive. Provides illumination too so other people would be aware that a driver is coming and they should be careful.

Eagle 95 - September 25, 2017, 2:03 pm

BMW 5 series, codename E39. It's a future classic and according to many last generation of BMWs that can be considered a BMW. Last true series includes along with E39 models such as E38 (7 Series) and E46 (3 series). It has that dangerous, badass look. Also M5 E39 didn't have a proper competitor, W210 E55 AMG, Jaguar XJR and Audi RS 6 were, according to many reviews and enthusiasts far behind the actual M5. Only thing that stops me to buy one now is insanely high registration rate for an old car. Hopefully I'll get one of those fine BMW's inline sixes because without inline six or higher, BMW isn't a BMW. ?

Some pictures (Click to View)

Favorite mod - exhaust mods. With good exhaust you can make a 100 horsepower car to sound awesome, almost as a v6.

Joke? A few of them - some might be inappropriate - reader discretion is advised!

Second voice reminded him: Joe, you're a veterinarian.

A kid comes to the barber shop and the barber says to his customer - "look, I'm going to show you the dumbest kid in the world. Kid, come here!" Kid comes and barber puts $20 bill in one hand and $100 bill in other hand, reaches to kid and says - "choose one you'd want to have". Kid chooses $20 and leaves the shop. Afterwards, the customer finds the kid and asks him why did he take the smaller bill. The kid says: "When I take the larger one, the game is over".

Two smugglers, Joe and Don, were trying to smuggle a rare and expensive squirrel across the border. In order to hide the squirrel from border patrol, Joe put squirrel in his underwear. After they've passed the border successfully, Joe pulls out squirrel from his pants, breaks its neck, jumps on it and throws it away 40 meters.
Horrorified, Don asks Joe: Why the fuck did you do that man? There goes our $50000.
Joe: Don, when squirrel thought that my penis is a branch and started swinging on it, I endured. When squirrel thought my balls were walnuts and tried to crack them, I endured. When squirrel thought my ass is a tree hole and tried to get in, I endured.
Don: So what didn't you endure?
Joe: When she started pulling walnuts into tree hole.

My favorite car is the Koenigsegg Regera because it's one of the top 10 most expensive car and it looks like the most appealing car in my point of view.

Picture of the car:

Revurb - September 26, 2017, 12:27 am

My favourite of all time is a '68 Chev.

Although I'm gonna give the spotlight to the Subaru Forrester. There's no more practical car in my opinion. An AWD sports wagon with a boxer engine? I've owned 3, 2 which surpassed 300,000kms on the odometer (almost 200,000 miles) effortlessly. The third I'm still driving @ 165,000kms.

The forrester is a good pick for campers, snow-goers, surfers, with Roof racks & a tow bar for trailers. The boot's large enough for a mattress given the back seats are folded down. Even if you intend to use this vehicle for city driving, it will accelerate with ease up hill & having a 2.5ltr engine is quite efficient on fuel.

One downside of the forrester is that Subaru use a dual-mas clutch, consisting of plastic parts. An ameture learning to drive manual-transmission in a Subaru is risking burning out the clutch much faster than with other manufacturers.

I hope you enjoyed reading this OP, and I hope I've inspired at least one reader to buy this awesome car!

Good luck everybody. :)

My favorite car is a JZX81 with a 2JZ-GTE. The owner actually lives in the same state as me and I've seen him driving around. He has a YouTube called Backyard Built! Super nice dude and his car is gorgeous. Another choice would have to be Caleb Quanbecks S14 LS2 408 stroker motor. Thing looks so rad already and its not even 100% finished. What isn't there to like about it. Also, Derrick Pompeo's S13. So much style. Words can't describe it. Also a Washington state local.

For the most part I'm involved in pretty much anything car related, so this was an easy task, but 3pic would be cool considering I just upgraded myself to I33t! Thank you for hosting this OP.

Basically, when I have a couple ten K's saved I'll look up a specific model/walk into a dealership.

I don't know if this is a mod, but I love that paint where it changes colour when it shines.

I'dbeither get white and dark grey shine (prob) OR dark grey with a light blue shine.

If that isn't a mod then I'd just get an OG plate. Nah, I'll get one of those anyway

Tell us a funny joke (10 points if I actually laugh). mustang drivers

Kswag - October 9, 2017, 5:14 pm

1. I don't really have a favorite car but my favorite motorcycle is BMW S1000RR because it's fast and loud vroom vroom.

2. My favorite mod for cars is a spoiler on the right type of car (Definitely on my mom's minivan) or butterfly doors.

3. Spoiler (Click to View)

Johnny was playing outside when he really had to go to the bathroom. He runs in and his grandma was about to take a shower. He looks at her crotch and says, "Whats that?" She says, "Well, it's a beaver, Johnny."

The next day the same thing happens, only his mom is taking the shower. He says, "Mom I know what that is. It's a beaver, but I think grandma's is dead because it's tongue is hanging out."

I've given up asking rhetorical questions. Whats the point?

Kswag - October 9, 2017, 11:24 pm

I hope I win this but can there only be upto 3 entries like #1-#3?

Biggy - October 9, 2017, 11:27 pm

Tell us what your favourite car is and why (show us a picture to while you're at it);

I personally like Toyota Camry's, for a few different reasons. Imo they drive good, nice on gas, and I've owned quite a few of them over the years. Best experience in a car ever.

Hope I'm able to win. Love HF :]

My favorite car is a GTR any version but i guess my favorite one is the r4. My favorite car mod is probably a good large spoiler. I dont know if i am able to put pictures on here.

My joke is that everyone watches crazy videos while there taking a BIG Po-op ._.

siddy357 - October 12, 2017, 8:39 am

My favourite car is the Ford Mustang , the beat makes me skip a beat at times. I prefer this over any the other vehicle.

You did not just say ford. Yuck.

Holden forever.

gigajew - October 14, 2017, 6:10 pm

Tesla or DMC Delorean, because future. Next in line would be 1989 Batmobile

Peter - October 15, 2017, 4:21 am

I'll be picking winners in 3 days.

Peter - October 17, 2017, 1:31 pm

Picking the winners today.
Get your entries in.

Stuck - October 17, 2017, 2:06 pm

Hey peter,

so my favorite car would be the Bugatti Chiron, the reason being is because it is the second fastest car in the world (fastest would be the Devel 16) but it can go up to 463 km/h (288 mph) but is sadly limited to 420 km/h (261 mph) for many safety reasons as you can imagine..... It still looks sexy as well that's why I chose it over the Devel 16. My favourite model of the Bugatti Chiron would most definitely be 2017 until next year ? too bad I can't afford one yet xD

Btw this joke is not safe for work just so you know....

How do you make your wife scream twice when you're banging her?
Stick it in her ass then wipe it on the curtain

This is the car

Also I'm happy with whatever rank I receive if I do win, I would just be grateful for whatever I'm given :)

Inversed - October 17, 2017, 4:34 pm

I currently have 2 favorite cars:

Car 1

Car 2

As you see I'm a BMW fan, in fact I'm a motorcycle guy and I don't like cars, but BMW is the only manufacturer I like.

BMW is the only car I would drive.

Hopefully I'm one of the winners, been watching and waiting for this thread for awhile.

Good luck to all and thanks again, Peter. :)

carlos_matos - October 17, 2017, 9:02 pm

My dream car always has been, and will always continue to be the Tesla P100D (with ludicrous mode).

Shit is 100% electric, saves money and the environment, swanky as fuck, and has a faster 0-60 time (ludicrous mode) than any other mass production car in the world (besides one, some Porsche model)

My favorite car: Tesla Model X imgur.com/a/MWOMA

Why: I like the futuristic look and I like the person who made it possible: Elon Musk, smart and dedicated + saves more money, less pollution.

A joke: about Donald Trump

"After the results came in, Donald Trump gave a big victory speech. He said he couldn't have done it without the love of his life, his rock, his better half...FBI Director James Comey."

I am posting 'Most Amusing Forum Conversation Real Excerpts'. These amusing comments were made, when some member messed with Thread creator on thread topic (Thread topic was about " Is there any method to earn 1$ per day?")

Following are those Comments Excerpts :-

Member 1 :-

You could stand on a corner and beg for money. I guarantee you, you will make more than $1 per day, and if you get good you can upscale it and get people to beg for you and before you know it, you'll have a network of beggars making you millions.

Member 2 :-

Dollar method. Shut up and spam til you get tired. Then repeat.

OP :- Thats your own method and your poor family MF Sell your momy to earn more money

Member 1 :-

Yup I've done it 4 or 5 times, escalated into hundreds of thousands every time, it's even better if you get women with small children or babies or if you fake a disability
People in Mexico are expert beggars like you wouldn't know.
