Thread: Scammed for \$100 by Candyshop \(uid=1061705\)

gonliSs - September 25, 2017, 8:42 am

Sent him $105 via paypal, expected to get $100 in BTC.
Member went offline right after my payment. Sad story.

Depending how long it's been, call PayPal say you sent to the wrong email, chargeback, report UA even if needed. Hopefully this gets resolved. How long after you paid has it been?

Also: Add his profile link, proof, etc.

What did you send the payment as? If you sent it as friends and family there are plenty of ways to get it reversed if he really thought he could scam for PayPal.

Would post some screenshots to support your dispute. Also consider using a middleman when buying stuff :)

Details posted. And yes, I sent it as a money to friends or family.

I'll be filling in a dispute in my bank.

I was trying to buy AGC from CandyShop and he denied 3 different middlemans(Danny, Dervie and Minimalist).

I have no doubt, this report is legit. Sorry for your lost OP and hope you will recover it somehow

One thing I can only say is, the blockchain network specifically at LBC is very very very slow for confirmations right now i'm waiting 14 hours for 1 confirmation on $10 lol

Hope you get what you paid for man.
