Thread: EUW free wins for low elo \(bronze/silver/gold\)

Fairly bored on League atm, but I have a cousin that is in silver account and keeps asking me to play ranked with him.

I'm nothing special, Diamond V peak, but silver/gold/plat is really easy wins for me, and in past I've boosted accounts to platinum with ridiculously high win rates when I used to elo boost, but unfortunately my main is too high ranked to duo with him in low silver, so if anyone wants free wins, I'll happily duo with him from your account and you can guarantee you'll end higher elo than you are currently if you're in bronze/silver/low gold. I won't play my mains otherwise I'd promise you a high win-rate, because then I'd rather just elo-boost accounts and make money. I just want to play casually and have fun, and rather play champions I don't usually play so at-least I can practice some stuff, but will easily win even with champs I never play tbh!

Most my friends have moved on from league unfortunately, so he's one of the only people I have fun with playing. But norms/ARAMs just don't give either of us that rush. Would greatly appreciate it!

I've never scripted or never would script, and have never received any bans of any sort, so you can be assured there won't be any problems like that :)

I am offended that you think silver is LOW elo. It's clearly HIGH ELO. They're only held back because they have BAD teammates.

You have a point there. Elo hell is a real place, and every 5 seconds a kid in africa dies in it.
