Thread: Where to buy wholesale customizable Apparel?

Sasaki Haise - September 28, 2017, 2:13 am

Looking for a supplier that can do customizable designs on a range of apparel (such as hoodies, t-shirts, jackets, etc) with a low MOQ that is made of decent quality material. Any suggestions would be greatly appreciated posted here or PMed. This is meant for a club/group of 30 people.

Do it locally, find some mom and pop's printing shop. It'll be much cheaper.

I use Tradekey.com to find businesses from India/China to supply my whole sale. My supplier charges $7.80 per hoodie, $2 per t-shirt. No shipping costs and high quality prints.
