I understand what you mean but there are plenty of unique/different bass samples in the pack, However, most ARE types of 808s and are harder/deeper basses as opposed to relaxed and chill style basses (which I assume you are looking for).

You stated you were on a tight time constraint and I was not able to do the project in time (unless I'm confusing you with someone else). I believe we agreed to cancel the project.

Sometimes it's better to keep stuff to yourself but to bad I'm already typing this.
