

Forum:Hack Forums

Thread: Horror animes for spooktober

rikku - September 30, 2017, 8:15 pm

any good horror anime recommendations i would like a big list cause i plan to binge watch for the full month of october

Deany - September 30, 2017, 8:19 pm

Ghost Hunt and Another are good

Professor Pantsu - September 30, 2017, 8:27 pm

Shiki and le portrait de petit cossette

P.S. you should totally check out the manga Franken Fran.

Akion2012 - October 1, 2017, 1:53 am

Dusk Maiden of Amnesia is pretty spooky too.

Anubis God - October 18, 2018, 7:41 am

When They Cry (Higurashi No Naku Koro Ni)

Top of the list is Higurashi: When They Cry (Higurashi No Naku Koro Ni), which is an adaptation of the game series with the same name, and the original one of the 'When They Cry' series.

It's June 1983 and the place is a fictional quiet rural village known as Hinamizawa. The protagonist Keiichi Maebara decides to leave his hometown for Hinamizawa after having witnessed several unfortunate events in his hometown. He spends most of his time in the company of his school friends, leading a carefree life and playing games with them. However, Hinamizawa, like most sleepy towns, has a dark secret. Appearances can be deceiving here. Keiichi stumbles upon the news of a murder in Hinamizawa one day, which is then followed by a number of mysterious events. He discovers that his good friends at school may not be all that good after all. As different events start unfolding in different situations, the story takes a horrifically gory turn. There is nothing more scary than a group of friendly whack jobs who just won't leave you alone!

Tallah-117 - October 27, 2018, 9:48 am

Another. One of my favorites and really interesting. I rarely watch horror anime and still love it! This anime bring me back to watch anime and I believe it has a really good horror thematic. You should totally check it out.