I'm down for some TS. Mic usually works fine on XB1 party chat but doesn't always work for 360. GT=Kibble

Before backwards compat you were lucky to see 500 and really lucky to see a thousand, almost never got up that high. Right now there is around 1300 which isn't great but isn't terrible for a monday. Thursday is really good and friday and saturday are also good. Since backwards compat it isn't suprising to see 2-4 thousamd people on at peak times.
