Thread: Gaming chair / Keyboard / mouse for 7 year old?

TheMedigator - October 4, 2017, 4:43 am

Anyone know of a good Gaming chair from the uk anywhere for a 7 year old? looking at a budget of upto £100.(That's for JUST the chair will be also spending money on the rest)

Also wanting a keyboard that is changeably via a program on the computer the same as my alienware for example.

And lastly a gaming mouse, Maybe a place that has all 3 or mouse and keyboard as a bundle?

Thanks in advanced! :D

You're gonna have to spend more than 100 on that lol.

I suggest something like this:

<http://www.ikea.com/us/en/catalog/products/50332238/>

https://www.gearbest.com/keyboards/pp_629511.html

https://www.gearbest.com/mouse/pp_797762.html

Then to change the keys on the keyboard I suggest a program such as Autohotkey:

For the chair alone? Seems like alot of them are around 60-80? I'm talking GBP not USD by the way so its like $130.

I'm looking at spending around 50 on mouse and keyboard 100 on chair.

Something like this for the chair maybe-

Why does a 7 year old need a $100 chair?

When I was 7 I sat on the floor when I played lol

You might need to raise your budget a little to get all that stuff.

You can get a gaming chair for under $100. Go on tech bargains.

The £100 (like $130) is for the chair alone

Wtf dude, buy him a ball and take him to the park. Why the fuck are you buying a gaming set up for a 7 year old?

Ruining his life before it starts.

Could possible make a standard size chair work on the lowest height. I recently brought this -
