Thread: Scammed by 100kSEO - UID: 883840

I bought his SEO ranking service, now he is ignoring me and no service has been provided and he has made 0 progress. No reports, no updates, nothing. Just warning people not to buy his services and to look for someone else for ranking.

Anyways. Here's some of the PMs it started off with.

As you can see from his profile: <https://hackforums.net/member.php?action=profile&uid=883840>

His last online date was more recent then the PMs, so it's not like he just hasnt been online, its that he started ignoring me after i paid him.

Here's the pagerank for the website i asked him to rank:

Stayed the same throughout and is still the same as of today.

Deal with caution.

still hasnt been resolved.

Pagerank only updates like twice a year, you should check the referring domains via Ahrefs or the trust flow via Majestic for example.

Google PageRank isn't a thing anymore.

Check your backlink profile, track your keywords.

Besides, for a niche like xbox live, you'd be lucky to see any movement using a $30 service.

Yup, the post is quite old. Didnt expect to see any movement but i thought i might as well take the 1/100 chance under the assumption he would refund me if it didn't move.

Don't buy ranking services for $30 and expect results. You'd be spending $xxxx to get decent ranking for popular keywords. Albeit, nobody should be promising results for $30.
