The new season of Tokyo Ghoul is going to be another bust. They already released that it's not going to stay true to the manga.

Only chance of this new season being good was to forget about S2 and just continue their own story in line with the manga but NOPE!

Interested in what some of you think.

I'm sure it'll add a few things here and there just like they did with last season.
I'll watch it since I like the Tokyo Ghoul manga series.

I personally enjoyed the second season so I'm not upset that they are carrying on with the direction.

Wow I spoke to this earlier in a discord server and people told me they weren't going to make season 3. Interesting I enjoyed the anime

I watched tokyo ghoul and the tokyo ghoul A and never read the manga but the show was fucking amazing it doesn't bother me that they are taking a different route than from the manga I want to see how different they are when I start reading it

Is the show worth watching? I have looked into it a little bit but never really sat down and actually watched it. How are the action scenes?

Geass - October 12, 2017, 6:26 am season 1 was awesome, just epic, but season 2 was shit, i hope season 3 will be better and not like the second.

In all honestly I kind of like how the anime is doing it's own thing compared to the manga, I'm enjoying the anime really.

Just my opinion tho, I'm sure many of you hate that it's different lol.
