Nice giveaway man! I'd love to win an upgrade!! :)

My favorite sport would have to be Football, so many different things going on in it and very entertaining to watch.

mlgnoscope - October 5, 2017, 2:51 pm

My favorite sport is handball! It combines both speed and muscles. It's also a very 'technical' game, with lots of practice to be mastered. It's fast, pretty impressive and for some reason underrated!

Reaper - October 5, 2017, 2:58 pm

My favorite sport is soccer. It's my favorite sport ever since I was a little kid. I also like it because the feeling when you're getting your jersey and then playing and scoring is a awesome feeling and you also meet new people (teammates)

And thanks for this giveaway and good luck to all

Money Magnet - October 5, 2017, 3:00 pm

I used to play handball back in the day. I miss those days sometimes. I haven't played a game of handball for at least 15 years! ?

What is your favorite Sport and Why?

My favorite sport is lacrosse because I play osu and my reaction time is really good. Thanks for hosting OP!

vad0x - October 5, 2017, 7:30 pm

I love basketball, and that's my favorite sport. Well the very first reason i like it is because i was born in a country where basketball is huge and the main sport! a country called Lithuania. If you watch NBA you can see my bois Valanciunas and Sabonis playing there. And a couple more Lithuanians. We love it! Second reason is because i am really tall and am ok at basketball, so its fun to play with some friends. Third is there is always something new to learn, so play or move or something. Just like in football!

Well that's my entry and why my favorite sport is Basketball.

LastSession - October 5, 2017, 7:31 pm

Nice giveaway I hope I win!

BENZO - October 5, 2017, 7:31 pm

My favorite sport is Tug of War. It's great, and original. A lot of fun!

Fruitcake - October 5, 2017, 7:34 pm

Football (Soccer) its the best most traditional passionate sport on earth.

Heart beats faster every game and thrown my heart into circles!

Thanks man!

Bloodmgx - October 5, 2017, 7:38 pm

My favourite sport is Rugby League. Was one of the sports I played through childhood and all my family keep up to date with it. I have to say today's games to watch on tv aren't the best, too many refs and video ref calls, I remember the days when it took 1 ref and 2 teams to have a game. Also people are turning soft and big hits/tackles get penalised more then a pat on the back these days. Still my favourite sport and this is my entry. :)

killualluka - October 5, 2017, 7:42 pm

fav sport is football, because of the simplicity. it's unpredictable enough to produce shock and dramatic moments.

also the atmosphere in the stadium is always great, the creativity of some tifos made by fans is outstanding..It works up your emotional side, It makes you cheer, it makes you angry, it keeps you entertained, it makes you passionate.

also the connection you make when you meet someone who's a big fan as you(especially if it's the same club).. all in all it's entertaining to watch/play

What is your favorite Sport and Why?:My favorite sports is basketball because I when I was in grade 6 that's when I started playing it and I was really good at it. I was in the basketball team when I was in Grade 6 until I graduated highschool. I was always a PG and I love basketball because that is the sport where I met real friends and make new friends. I always loved playing competitively when I was grade 10 I always play against University people and I do alright. overall I love this sport and when I get my own son I will teach him everything I know and train him and be a better player than me when I was young.

bronzegods - October 6, 2017, 1:18 pm

What is your favorite Sport and Why?

Football is my favourite sport. I credit this game for teaching me so from interpersonal skills to self-reflection. When you're there in the field, it's a different feeling altogether. The hunger to score a goal is driving our impulse but to keep it under control and making a decisive run at the opponents is what keeps the nerves on. Also, the stamina required to last the whole game is phenomenal. I play football ever sunday and follow English premier league and La Liga. Infact we have our own facebook page where we discuss our weekly football matches. It's not active though.

One of my favorite sports is snowboarding. Wouldn't mind getting epic if I win ! Goodluck to everyone entering.

SkidHat - October 6, 2017, 2:03 pm

My favorite sport is Badminton. These're why:

1. A sport where you don't physically engage the opponent and touching them
In this sport, you won't be tackled by opponent two times bigger than you.

2. A sport where you can still win using brute force alone

Smashing harder to your opponent's court will win you point occasionally.

3. A sport where you can still win over brute force using accuracy and elegance

Hey, brutally smashing doesn't always make you win.

4. A sport where you can make your opponent dance around the court

Love torturing your opponent and killing them slowly?

5. Practice will definitely make you better

The more you play, the more you get better at hitting those shuttle. Your effort will not betray you.

6. Your technique will stay with you, even if your physical fitness is not

You can still play even if you reach age 40s - 50s

7. I always imagine I slap the opponent when I smash

Like screaming "I HATE YOOOOOU!" inside.

8. That feeling when you do net shot touching the net and still ends up in your opponent's court

"Oooh. I'm sorry! I'm just so skillful you will not be able to return that even if you tried" evil laugh.

9. Of course, the view when you look down on your opponent when they lunge to take a net shot but didn't make it

I feel very superior and intimidating.

10. No matter violently you smash to your opponent's belly, he will be fine

There will be no wound. But, of course, if you're Fu Hai Feng, you need to be careful. Please be safe.

(Oct 6, 2017 11:34 AM)khloke96 Wrote: [\[CITE\]](#) what's your handicap? Where do you play?
I don't even have a handicap yet. I started two years ago completely new at Golf. Had zero knowledge and no idea it was actually fun and challenging enough to crush your soul multiple times in a round. I started out averaging 140+ Strokes. I'm currently in the low to high 90s depending on the course. I Golf all around the Pennsylvania area. Next year I hope to be good enough to play at TPC Sawgrass in FL.
