Alright, so ive been taking some image editing classes for the past years on my way to a graphic design major, and ive spent a little time creating a big list of cool avatars for you HFers to use around the site! I wrote a little backstory behind every photo just for fun!

#1:

I call this one Starry Night, as the shiny reflections remind me of a star filled night.

#2:

I call this one Blood Diamond, I would hope its self explanatory. Came to me when I was really deep in depression and fell into a blood diamond ponzi scheme.
