the actual mascot looks good as always, but the text on this one looks really weird, still good tho

-Rben- - October 7, 2017, 3:12 pm

it's a very nice and strong design but i don't really know what to think of the rounded triangle thingy in the background of the dragon

Studio Intramural - October 7, 2017, 6:34 pm

Not bad! Perspective looks a little off in the nose/mouth area though.

i was thinking if i will replace that with wings ? ? ..
and put a dragon tail on the bottom of the text .. hahaha ..
thanks for your comment.

Baby Groot - October 13, 2017, 3:50 am

It looks cool, everything is going well regarding the colour code but the eye. The eye personally needs to be a different colour.

ZooTedi - October 13, 2017, 8:54 am

This is pretty solid I haven't done any gfx work in years. This kinda inspires me to start again lol.

Only thing I would change is the shortness of his neck.

gigajew - October 13, 2017, 10:04 am

It looks great, only thing I would do is move the head down a little so that it's almost resting it's head on top of the brand to make it more compact
