Got bored so I made this. Photoshop won't let me save it as transparent for some reason even though I've tried like 8+ different settings and stuff so I just exported it on white. Watcha guys think?

Dope! I like the design. It's definitely unique and different, I wonder why you couldn't export it transparent. Either way, goodluck bro!

That doesn't even look that bad, nice work!

Looks nice, suiting theme, I would change the top text "Packets, Posts.." maybe a different font or do something more with it. Looks a bit thin and bland.

Aside from that looks really nice GJ. Weird you couldn't save as Transparent. :/

The use of Chiller is a crime against humanity. It's not 2004.

If you can't save it as a .png with transparency enabled (Save for Web), try making the background layer #333333 ;)
