Scammer! You want to delete my screenshot proofs everyday.
Good luck I uploaded them this time on different image hosting site.
You can't delete them no more.

The HF member "Fizure" scammed me:

Thread

<https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5695164>

I posted a comment on a thread to someone else but this guy read it and approached me from his end promising me the same job.

Description

So this user had approached me offering he can do the job so we continued the conversation and struck the deal. I paid him advance payment of $800 and he sent me proof the other day. He said the job is done and sent me proof after which I sent him full payment of Total $1370. After receiving the payment he made an excuse that his broadband is not working.

He also gave me a -3 rep with a fake reason of wasting his time.

Today he demanded more money and tried to blackmail me.

My biggest mistake was trusting his +reps.

His HF account had more value then the deal we had.

8: Him saying the job is done

9: Addition I made to our deal

10: Proof he sent me

11: Remaining amount paid $580

12: Excuse he gave after getting payment

13: He stopped replying

14: Blackmailing for more money from me

I need help!

This is first time ever I have been scammed on HF, don't know what to do next.

The scammer is an Uber member with good rep, don't know how to stand against him.

I would appreciate if an elder member with high reputation would guide me to resolve this.

Resolution in form of job delivery or refund both will be appreciated.

Do guide me if the thread needs correction.
Never had been scammed before so dont know the process.

Rexxar - October 12, 2017, 1:29 am

Valid Scam report and his Trust Scan is also good. It's definately him and not a case of hacked account.

Sad to see a 2008 member scamming..

@OP, please upload whole conversation in one imgur album and share that link only so that it would be easier to read the whole conversation.

no the link he posted was invalid cause he put comma right after the URL lol your good. just use imgur to host the images in a gallery and post just a link to that so much easier for people to scroll through and look at and faster for u to upload as can upload all them at one time instead of one by one

Your biggest mistake was, not reading about hacksforums scams. He don't have any diamond award, that's ub3r award which anyone can get after upgrading his account for 30$ payment.

I'm not sure how are you calculating his accounts value but it's definitely wasn't more than your deal not even 1/4th.

My bad ?

Regretting more since the BTC value is 4 times now.
