I flipped what I had off site at once for 80% lol. Will be adding more with in the next 24-48 hours.

My rates are as follows: (pending on user / payment method)

$1-$100 = 75%
$101-$175 = 70%
$176+ = 65%

Also offering an affiliated program.

If you refer a customer and they buy a predetermined total (multiple transactions totalling *AGC) I will offer you a rate between 60%-65%.

Open and ready for business! The deal dispute was a misunderstanding and it was 110% resolved IDK why the user didn't mark it as resolved before self banning him self, but dbags will be dbags :/

For those questioning the ONE deal dispute that is open against me.

The kid was being a bitch and tried to charge back so I never sent him his funds. We made contact after that was posted (I was working 16 hour mid night shifts, 7 days a week for a while, hence my inactivity) He cancelled the dispute, I sent funds to him and he self banned him self and refuses to remove it. I personally don't care that he posted it I have had far more successful deals on here with no issues so one kid being a moron doesn't bother me to much.

Well, I just purchased a L33T upgrade from you, but have not received anything, its time for you to prove that you are not a scammer, lol. Will update this post when I receive the upgrade

EDIT: I am still waiting for the confirmation that my upgrade has gone through, will change this post when I receive the upgrade EDIT2: OP can not get into blockchain account, and therefore asked me to chargeback the money and he will accept, this is not possible as the transaction was sent via f&f. I told him to refund the transaction and he said that his account would get limited. Waiting for OP to refund, will update this post if he does.

EDIT3: User told me that he spent my money that I sent for the upgrade on bitcoin and therefore cannot refund me as his account will get flagged and limited.

EDIT4: I chargedback the transaction and OP said he would accept the chargeback when asked. I will update this post if he accepts it. If this post is not updated, assume I did not get my money back . PS: I paid 9 NZD in fees which I will never get back, so that is pretty depressing

EDIT5:OP DECLINED chargeback and took my money.

EDIT6: I am trying to sort this out with OP, there might be a resolution! :)

I accepted charge back...

Explained to this guy the 25 he sent was in a transaction for other btc.

told him to claim it was a fraudulent payment and I would accept.

dude calls paypal and is impatient instead of allowing me to call PP and get the issue resolved.

Paypal closed the case automatically and user is threatening me to call paypal and limit my account.

Due to his impatience and lack of knowledge about using paypal and the loop holes to simply resolve this he is causing it to take a lot longer then it should have.

HEXAGON - June 19, 2018, 5:22 pm

I need a deal done , my PayPal , your bitcoin.

Wont go first because of recent DWC's , we can use MM of your choice

Pm me rates.

sLACKER - June 19, 2018, 5:24 pm

let me get my paypal sorted and I will use minimalist (you cover fees naturally) IDK if this kid just fucked me out of money again or not but will be livid if they don't release my other funds (2k+)

HEXAGON - June 19, 2018, 6:06 pm

I dont need this anymore , Ragnar exchanged for me.

For those questioning the ONE deal dispute that is open against me.

The kid was being a bitch and tried to charge back so I never sent him his funds. We made contact after that was posted (I was working 16 hour mid night shifts, 7 days a week for a while, hence my inactivity) He cancelled the dispute, I sent funds to him and he self banned him self and refuses to remove it. The user is a scammer and a liar. Deal was not resolved. Do NOT trust him with your money.

P.S: Fun how you restarted your service while I was selfbanned, and you went on talking shit about me behind my back. Holy shit, that's pathetic.

Basstracer - June 20, 2018, 12:13 am

I am trying to sort this out with OP, but not responding to PM's (he might be AFK though (For the past 6 hours)) (EDIT: Just realised that OP probably went too sleep, so giving time to respond to PM's). Before I start this, I would like to say that I previously got scammed for a L33t upgrade (on a different occasion) , which is exactly what I was purchasing from this user (slacker), that thread can be found here: <https://hackforums.net/showthread.php?tid=5850565> (This has nothing too do with OP, but I want everyone to know the situation that I was in. Anyways, starting with what OP originally said, "I accepted charge back...". Either there is a huge mess up, or this is not true.

point 2: "Explained to this guy the 25 he sent was in a transaction for other btc."
This is 100 % correct!

Except you failed to mention why you wanted me to chargeback in the first place. You wanted me too chargeback since you could not get into your blockchain account, and therefore wanted me to charge back because of your mistake, not mine. Also I asked you to refund it and you denied as you said you account would get limited, again, making this whole situation my problem.

point3:"told him to claim it was a fraudulent payment and I would accept."

You said that exactly, but that was not the case , refer to point 1 for image.

point4:"dude calls paypal and is impatient instead of allowing me to call PP and get the issue resolved."

I called paypal after waiting almost 12 hours (from start to end) for our issue to get resolved. OP did tell me that he was on the phone with paypal, but I highly doubt it would take that long to sort out a problem. It took me 5 minutes to speak to someone and they could tell me that the funds WERE sent to Slackers as stated in the screenshot.

point5:"Paypal closed the case automatically and user is threatening me to call paypal and limit my account."

Paypal may have closed the case automatically, and I do believe that this is a possibility, but if so then resolve the f*cking issue. Instead he keeps Pm'ing me that he is speaking too paypal. As for the threatening part, I love this, it is the most ironic thing that OP could have sent, here is why:

As for the part where it says that I need to stop threatening him, it was because I told him that if this issue does not get resolved, I am going to open a scam report, which is fair enough to say after waiting forever.

He said that he would simply tell paypal that the transaction was about bitcoin, and thereby winning the claim. Which makes no remote sense, because if he were to say that then they would flag and limited his account, since he is exchanging bitcoin via paypal, kind of funny tbh. Also he says "and limit my account" , but if he were too say that I bought bitcoin, MY ACCOUNT would get limited, lol.

Lastly: "Due to his impatience and lack of knowledge about using paypal and the loop holes to simply resolve this he is causing it to take a lot longer then it should have."

If only it were so simple, I wish this user stuck to what he said, the transaction would of been fluent and fast, instead of babbling on excuses throughout the process.

I am currently trying to get hold of OP, and really want to fix this problem by 1) Either getting my L33T upgrade, or 2) getting my refund as promised. Will update you all on the future outcome. :)

I've been doing deals with this guy for few years.

And I never had a single issue with him.

Pretty sure this will be solved.

Look, why would I want to lose money, makes no sense, I want this to be solved, I want too work with him and deal with him in the future. I hope we can work together to sort this out. He seems like a decent user, I was just getting anxious, as I just got scammed for an upgrade. Hope OP can PM me and get this sorted. PS: When I called paypal, I asked about the transaction chargeback being declined, and they said that the money was sent too him, I said NOTHING ELSE. I did not cause them to limit his account in any way shape or form. I was thinking of going to my bank to chargeback the transaction, but decided not to and try to sort this out with OP. Hope we can come to a conclusion!
