Thread: Guy is giving out Xbox gift codes for players to be on Halo 3

If you message the Gamertag "Halo 3 Revival", he will check to see if you are playing or have played Halo 3 (xbox 360 version) recently, and if you are.have, send you a 2$ xbox gift code in a message...

I don't own Halo 3 for the Xbox 360, only MCC on Xbox and it's trash so I can't verify if this is true but a buddy told me about it so i'm just passing the information along. If someone wants to take the time to verify it and post a reply please do.

Why would he do that, doesn't make any sense?

Someone should try this out and give the guy a message. Interesting.

Lol shoutout to that guy for starting a revolution.. It is disappointing the amount of people who play, hard to find even a social slayer match.
