Thread: Anyone has some ways to get german traffic?

Regalia - October 17, 2017, 12:16 am

Hey guys,

since I'm german and still make some little mistakes in english I'd prefer to only talk to german guys out there to seem more legit.

I've tried getting users with an omegle but but I honestly think omegle is a shitty place for that. Been whoring for 3 days now (kind of part time), had conversations with like 30-40 guys and no one bought. It may be because of my experience but yeah .. would be really thankful if either someone german can give me some tips via PM or just tell some quick german traffic methods :)

Greetings

mach das ehrlich gesagt nicht, lieber gebrochenes Englisch. Deutsche sind gierige Menschen und Geier - das kann dir beim "Betrug" zum Verhängnis werden, wenn du nicht aufpasst.

So why exactly did you post that? How is that helpful in any way?

OP, nobody is going to give out their best sources, but some common known sites are markt and quoka, just search for anything where you can put a post up in an adult section and see how it goes from there.
