Description

I bought a 10k promo on lg from user Funtela on August 27th he has not fulfilled this service. I did not want to file this as I had bought a 1k promo and he delivered it with no problem. I have also bought services from him in the past without issue, however, I gave him plenty of time to either refund me or fulfill the service and he did neither.

I would just like to be refunded at this point. i was going to wait to make this thread, however, do to his recent post about buying and selling btc it bothers me that he would not repay me if he has the money.

i think this is all that is need if anything more is needed i will post it.

Proof

<https://imgur.com/a/3aC0r> this is out kik convo the date is earlier then i said because i had bought a 1k promo before the 10k. he delivered the 1k no problem

user contacted me agreed to pay me in a few payments i have no problem with that. i will keep this up till i am paid in full.

update 10/28 user paid me $50 in btc 10/17 and said he would pay me every few days been over a week no other payment has been sent. No message has been sent since the 17th

I hope you get this resolved.

I only had a vouch copy problem with funtela besides that he's a good guy.

Outlaw. - October 17, 2017, 5:10 pm

From what I've seen Funtela is a great person, he might have some problems to solve right now, just be patient OP.

Hope you get this resolved.

That should solve it right. Like waiting since August isn't already patient enough.

test - October 17, 2017, 5:13 pm

The proof picture doesn't really show much. All it shows is that he couldn't deliver the service, he offers to pay you back $50 incrementally and you agree to it. Do you have any other pictures to show that several days actually passed without you receiving payment or updates from him? Hope you get this resolved nonetheless.

thank you i agree with you guys i have boughten things from him before no problem, however, he seems to be ignoring me.

i feel this is the only way to be paid i have been waiting 2 months with very little communication

funtela - October 17, 2017, 5:20 pm

I had told you it would take a bit to start since some of the accounts were disabled.

I know it's been 2 months and I apologize for that.

I'll put you ahead of everyone else and start tonight.

i no longer want this service the project i was doing is no longer running please refund me instead of saying you will start

funtela - October 17, 2017, 5:26 pm

Never mind, check your PMs.

I'll admit that my communication was shit.

I've had a lot of personal issues and I honestly forgot about this.

I'll refund you. If it's okay can I send $25-$50 every couple days?

Ryan is typically good at that if life is hard for him. Best of luck Ryan keep the good fight.

Biggy - October 17, 2017, 10:41 pm

I've always seen Funtela fix these issues when they arise. Awesome to see.

funtela - October 18, 2017, 1:26 pm

I sent OP $50 yesterday. I told him I'd send more in a couple of days.

One of the better deal disputes. Very good outcome for all. OP gets his money back and i think Funtela keeps his good reputation. Nice to see a dispute settled amicably Taking 2 months and a deal dispute is not a "good outcome".

If OP had that money, it would've been worth way more sitting in his BTC wallet.

Funtela hits this bump in the road rather often, seems like he has an issue every few months or so lol.

If anything, people should learn that Funtela can't be trusted with your money until you make a deal dispute. I hope some take away the potential of dealing with this member.

Yeah i could have worded it better. But 99% of the deal disputes on here end up not getting resolved. At least the money is being returned. Yeah, i also agree with the btc now being worth alot more than it was 2 months ago. But i guess thats between those guys to discuss

Why would he even refund you "every couple of days"?

He is doing exchanges, seems like he has the money

@OP please send me your BTC address in a PM.

This was so long ago. I feel like I did pay you back. I saw the thread a couple of days ago but I really haven't had the time to look into it. I always pay back my debts so I'll do it even if I did end up doing it in the past. If I remember correctly I paid you back but you didn't use the forum anymore or idk what it was. Maybe I'm thinking of a different person. Either way I'll pay you back.

I have a family now with a 7 month old so can't just give you $200 right now, I'm sorry. I just don't have it.

I'll send you $60 today and the other $140 later on. You're welcome to keep the thread open.

The fact that OP is even accepting $50 a day instead of the full $250 that he paid is astonishing to me. OP is not a bank, this isn't a loan service. People charge interest for a $250 loan that you pay back with time. Just do the right thing and refund the dude. The fact that he's still trying to get his money back 5 years later shows how much damage it has done.

It sucks that OP isn't getting the refund in one payment, but at least it's being resolved.

Hoping for a speedy resolution fellas, good luck! ?

I'm Stanley HF's helper bot. The OP (original poster) of this thread wants everyone to see this page and has elected to bump it to the top of the showthread listing. Since HF doesn't want a ton of LQP (Low Quality Posts) this is the best method of bumping your content. There is a small ?yte fee for each bump. Any OP can bump any of their threads on HF from the linked icon on the top of their first post.

If you haven't already read the first post of this thread we encourage you to do so.

Thanks,
Stanley
